REPUBLICANS IN GREAT RALLY LAST NIGHT

General Apathy Did Not Put In His Appearance and Many Doubt There Is Such Person

Court House Crowded With Admirers of Republican Ticket and Closest Attention Was Given to Dozen or More Able Political Speakers.

GOOD OLD TIME ENTHUSIASM PREVAILS

We have heard more or less about the country over in the political campaign now reading a close and have been told that voters generally are not interested in this "off year" battle. The observation may be true as to many sections but, judging alone from the attendance and enthusiasm shown at last night's enthusiastic and largely attended meeting at the Court House, it certainly does not apply to Clearfield County Republicans. The Court House was crowded to its utmost capacity, even every foot of the space within the rail being occupied while scores of men were forced to stand along the sides and at the front of the room. It was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering of Republican men and women seen in Clearfield in years and given assurance, if a miracle was necessary, at this time that the Republican voters of this county are alive to the issues confronting the people of Pennsylvania at this highly important election and can be counted upon to roll up the usual handsome majority for the entire Republican ticket on Tuesday next.

A. M. J. Veright, Esq., called the meeting to order at 8:10 and after telling the assemblage that he believed the general public should take politics seriously to heart as the problems to be solved in Pennsylvania required the best thought of the business man, the farmer and the wage earner, he presented the name of R. H. Sommerville for chairman of the meeting styling him an upright, clean living business man whose integrity is beyond question. Mr. Sommerville was unanimously chosen, his appearance on the rostrum being greeted with a burst of applause.

The following Vice Presidents were then named and invited to take seats within the enclosure in front of the Judge's bench: Dr. W. C. Brown, of Burnside; W. H. Orner, Sandy twp.; J. J. Hughes, DuBois; James Mitchell, Sr., Clearfield; Charles G. Gill, Osgood; Mrs. J. M. Cornely, Madera; Charles S. Strong, Ansonville; Mrs. H. H. Sweeney, Houtzdale; Thomas Kenwick, Chester Hill; G. A. Johnson, DuBois; William Brighten, DuBois twp. and Mrs. F. H. McCully, Osgood.

In assuming the chair Mr. Sommerville expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him and stated that as there was a long list of speakers he would confine his remarks to a simple introduction of each speaker.

He then called upon Mrs. Edith Elliot Smith, of Pennsdale, Pa., who said that she was not only a real dirt farmer but a fruit grower of some magnitude as well. She paid splendid tribute to Gifford Pinchot, whom she styled the most approachable of men, with a warm heart and the well-faith of his fellow man at heart, saying it was a fortunate thing to have such a ticket as the Republican party presented to the people of Pennsylvania at this election. She paid some attention to the arduous and urged her hearers to vote the ticket straight.

He paid tribute to the late Hon. Thomas H. Murray and James B. Graham, a former Clearfielder now one of Williamsport's leading business men, and to the late Col. E. A. Irvin of Currensville.

Mr. Collins in the course of his remarks said this was no "off year" election, it was too important for that, and all should be interested and come out to the polls as the question to be solved at this time meant too much for any mistake to be made. That Gifford Pinchot, winner of the greatest primary ever held in Pennsylvania, would have been elected after that primary instead of engaging in the most farflung campaign ever undertaken in the State. When in charge of the affairs of Pennsylvania the business of government would be conducted open and above board, wrong in public places would be exposed and righted beyond question and the undoubted election of a friendly legislature assured the carrying out of his policies. The speaker said there was no division and no factions among the Republicans of Pennsylvania, but all stood squarely behind Gifford Pinchot and the admirably ticket which he heads. Why bother with McSparran? Pennsylvania is a Republican State, and its affairs must be administered by Republicans and the policies of the party of Lincoln were safe in the hands of the close personal friend of the great Roosevelt.

Mr. Collins paid the strongest of compliments to Senatorial candidates Pepper and Reed, whom he styled worthy successors to Knox and Penrose. He said the election of a Republican Senate was assured, but he was not so sure about the National House of Representatives and it behooved all believers in Republican principles to rally to the support of Hon. W. I. Spooner for Congress as he would be needed at Washington by President Harding to assist in carrying out the constructive policies of the administration. He spoke of Mr. Spooner's commanding fitness and said he would grace the position and bring honor and credit to this district and the State. He possessed the gift of presentation, had been faithful to every trust and would take first rank in the House.

He also urged the election of Jones and Miller for the legislature saying Governor Pinchot would need them at Harrisburg. He paid particular attention to the State Senate and pointed out to his audience the grave necessity for the election of Hon. Harry B. Scott of Philipsburg from this district. He said the Senate was composed of but 50 votes and while it required 26 of those votes to pass a law, 25 would defeat one. He styled Scott as a successful business man, who knows the people of his district is thoroughly acquainted with their needs, open-minded and generous and would prove to be a leader in the Senate. This was no time for division or dissension as the army of the enemy is at the gate and every Republican in the district should vote for Scott as his party needed him at Harrisburg the coming four years.

Reverting to National issues in his closing, Mr. Collins said the people found the job of running this country was a job entirely too big for the Democratic party to handle and was the intimate relationship between all the Republicans could handle, but Clearfield and Williamsport people in their could successfully steer the ship of State from the troubled sea, in which the Democrats left it to the safe harbor of prosperity as was already evidenced by the modicum of achievement of the Harding administration during the eighteen months of its existence. Mr. Collins closed his remarks by again urging the election of the entire Republican ticket.

A. H. Woodward, Esq., was the next speaker. He said the Republican party was called upon to answer for the commission given it by the people two years ago and it responds cheerfully and confidently because of the great achievements of the Harding administration. Never was there a more colossal change than that of two years ago when the people rose almost unanimously to put out the Democratic party and to put in the Republican party. This country had to have one Democratic administration every generation lest the people would forget how incompetent they were in governmental administration. He said when Woodrow Wilson took charge of affairs the national debt totaled one billion dollars at 3 1/2 per cent interest; when he was unceremoniously fired by the people at the polls the national debt had reached the enormous total of twenty-three billions and we were paying 8 per cent interest, the interest charges alone being half a billion more than the total of the debt when Wilson took charge. One half of this great debt was due to waste, extravagance and general incompetency which was demonstrated by the fact that the War Department which spent four billions on guns and ammunition, etc., had really provided but 72 cannon and 20,000 shells by the end of the war, but had purchased more branding irons than they had mules to brand; they spent two billions on a nitrate plant and never produced a pound of nitrate; twenty millions on coke ovens and never produced any coke; two billions were spent on airplanes with nary an airplane to show for it; thirty-seven millions for concrete ships and the ships wouldn't float; large sums for wooden ships now rotting at their wharves, while "on-law McAdoo's" administration of the railroads cost the people one and three quarters billions, with seven billions more to pay. President Harding promised to take the country back to "normalcy, or normal life. Strictest economy is necessary to bring about that condition, and it is coming, as his administration in eighteen months has reduced taxes $640,000,000 and while in 1920 the cost of government was seven and one-half billions in 1921 it was but five and one half billions and this year it would not total more than three billions. The army and navy had been reduced, the civil employees outside of Washington cut down 320,000 while 37,000 deserving Democrats in Washington had departed for the land of "cinnamon reed and sandy bottom."

Mr. Woodward closed by saying there was no reason for any Republican voter to turn away now. Stand by the party and President Harding until his program is complete.

John C. Arnold, Esq., followed Mr. Woodward and devoted a few minutes to McSparran and his attack on the administration of the State Department of education, or "Finganism" as the Democratic candidate styles it. He showed how State Superintendent Dr. Thomas E. Finegan had lifted the State educationally from the position of 21st among the States to a place near the head of the list and closed by reading the following tribute to Dr. Finegan's accomplishments from Jane O. Leonard, the grand old woman of the Indiana State Normal who at this election is the Democratic candidate for assembly in her district. The letter was written by the editor of the Indiana Gazette, who had misquoted the noted woman

Crime Wave Makes Detective Necessary

MRS. ROSIER GOES FREE FIRST BALLOT OF JURYMEN DECIDE

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Catherine Rosier today was acquitted by the jury which tried her for killing Miss Mildred Geraldine Reckitt, her husband's stenographer and shortly afterwards was free of the indictment on the charge of killing her husband at the same time.

As the foreman pronounced the words "not guilty" the 22 year old defendant uttered a piercing shriek and fainted. She was carried from the court room by her chief counsel, John Scott, and a court officer, but was quickly revived. This was the 15th day of the trial.

Tremendous applause swept the crowded room when the verdict was announced and the cheer prevailed. Later Mr. Scott made a motion to release the prisoner pending the action of the district attorney in the second indictment, that of causing the death of her husband.

"If she was adjudged insane at the time of the killing of Miss Reckitt," the district attorney told the court, "she was insane at the time of killing her husband." That is right said the court. Then he submitted to the jury still sitting in the jury box, instructions to find Mrs. Rosier not guilty. This was done immediately.

The case went to the jury this afternoon and the jurors were out one hour and forty-five minutes.

Jurymen said that while there was some discussion before the verdict was taken, there virtually was an agreement from the first and only one ballot was necessary.

BURGLARY BUSINESS SHOWS BIG SLUMP IN CITY OF CHICAGO

Chicago, No. 4. (United Press).—The burglar business in Chicago has slumped and the most notorious of the city's underworld characters have either quit the game or are vacationing in other climes, according to the report of the Chicago Crime Commission.

Robbery has decreased 48 per cent. during the last three months and the "hold-up" game is less popular by more than 30 per cent., statistics show.

"The hold-up game has lost its attractions for the best crooks," Henry Barrett Chamberlain, director of the commission, declared. "The enlarged police force aided by active cooperation from the State's Attorney office is responsible."

"The fact that the burglar business has slumped means that the law has got them worried."

Crime in Chicago is an organized business, carried on by trained and efficient professionals, the report stated. "Help wanted" signs have figuratively been placed in "employment dives of the underworld" by gang leaders, who are seeking recruits to take the places of the criminals who have quit.

Another indication that the "hold-up" man has lost his boldness was seen in the statement that there were fewer killings by this type of criminal in recent months than in any similar period in police annals.

Murders, however, have increased. Six policemen were killed during the last year in the performance of their duty. Most of the murders were committed either in roadhouses or along suburban highways.

A. W. LEE, SR. IN HOSPITAL

A. W. Lee, Sr., was removed from his Second Street home to the Clearfield hospital last evening for medical treatment, he having been ill for several days.

Contagious Diseases Increase During The Last Week Locally

Secretary Caulfield's report as to the local health conditions shows there was a total of 14 cases of communicable diseases reported to the Board of Health during the past week. Of these 4 were diphtheria and 5 scarlet fever. During the same time quarantine was lifted on 8 cases, leaving 27 cases under quarantine in the town. They are located as follows:

First Ward—Scarlet fever, 3.
Second Ward—Scarlet fever, and diphtheria, 2. scarlet fever, 5, diphtheria, 2.
Third Ward—Diphtheria, 9, whooping cough, 3, scarlet fever, 1.
Fourth Ward—Scarlet fever, 2.

GRANGERS HOLD A GREAT SESSION AT DUBOIS, PA.

DuBois, Pa., Nov. 4.—One of the most successful quarterly sessions of the Clearfield County Farmers Grange took place yesterday morning, afternoon and evening at the Whitehead building, on West Washington avenue, when a large number of grangers from this county, as well as a number of visitors from granges in Elk and Jefferson county were present.

The morning session was opened by Master Maurice Bush, of Kylertown and the fifth degree opening ceremonies. W. C. Pentz, Esq., of this city, on behalf of Mayor A. J. Haag, made the address of welcome, and Mrs. Neil Meredith, a lecturer from Elk County Grange, responded for the out of town guests.

The balance of the morning session was given over to the reports of the various committees of the fire, insurance company and from the various county granges represented. Mrs. Luella Wingert and F. Hudson Lee made splendid addresses in the evening numbers of the morning program and one of the big events of the day then took place. A beautiful basket dinner was served at noon in the spacious dining room and everybody present had a delightful meal.

Following the dinner, the afternoon session was opened with music followed by a monologue by Miss Grace Harman, of Luthersburg, and a member of last year's DuBois High School graduating class. Professor Ira Scheid of the Luthersburg high school gave a very interesting address on "Fertilizing Grangers' Minds," and it was appreciated greatly by the grangers.

One of the best addresses of the day by Major I. McCright, of this city, was made during the afternoon with the subject, "How Can the Farmer Better Present Day Market Conditions," and was preceded by instrumental music by Mrs. Ira Carrier.

Miss Anna A. MacDonald of the Library Extension Bureau of Harrisburg, spoke upon "The County Library," and was followed by Miss Irene Crandle, who went further into detail on the same question. Both addresses were greatly appreciated by the grangers.

Memorial services in honor of M. J. Owens, who died late in August, were conducted by State Deputy George B. Wachob, assisted by Hon. Peter Gearhart, of Clearfield. "How Was Your Potato Crop and How Was It Raised," was ably given by W. P. Wingert while an excellent recitation was given by John London.

Following this excellent program, the general business of the session was had, and the meeting, place for (Continued On Page Two.)

MULTIPLICITY OF UNINVESTIGATED UNEXPLAINED AND MYSTERIOUS CRIME CAUSES DISTRICT ATTORNEY TO ACT

Forced by the exigencies of the present conditions and the situation in Clearfield county, the county authorities have found it necessary to again appoint a county detective to look after violations of the law in this county. The law provides that where the necessity for a County Detective exists the District Attorney may present the name of a competent, resourceful person for that position, whereupon it is incumbent upon the Judge of the County to appoint such person as County Detective at a salary to be agreed upon by and among the different County officials in charge of the disbursement of county funds.

The placing of the Sheriff of the County on salary has increased the office duties of that officer without making adequate provision for outside or field work, which has placed a largely increased burden on the District Attorney's office and the appointment of a County Detective became an absolute necessity.

The new officer, who assumed his duties November 1st, is M. Meade Snyder, of Five Points, Chest township. Mr. Snyder is a well known and highly respected resident of the upper end of the county and possesses the requisite qualifications for the making of a successful officer. His salary is fixed at $1440 and expenses.

County Detective Snyder will have charge of the enforcement of the State and National Prohibition laws in Clearfield county, as well as all criminal investigations coming within the scope of the District Attorney's office and his appointment will be highly satisfactory to all law-abiding citizens.

PHILIPSBURG MAN SERIOUSLY HURT IN GUNNING ACCIDENT

Philipsburg, Nov. 3.—While out hunting Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 1st, Frank Egan of North Sixth street, Philipsburg, was painfully and rather seriously injured when a load of shot from the gun in the hands of his companion, James Rose, of Point Lookout, struck him.

Egan, Rose and another hunter were out near Glass City, in Rush township. They had a rabbit which one of them had captured and were about to liberate it and let the dog chase it. Egan, bending over, released the bunny. Rose, standing near, evidently was afraid it was going to get away from the dogs, for he discharged his gun when the game was only five or six feet away, it is said. The shot struck Egan, who was still in a stooping position, on the right side of the head, above the ear. He was rendered unconscious for a short time, but later was able to walk to one of the home at Glass City.

Dr. W. R. Henton was summoned and removed the lead bullets which had lodged in the flesh. The injured man is now getting along nicely at his home.

Grunners cannot be too careful in the handling of their firearms. This should be kept constantly in mind, not alone for their own welfare and those who are hunting with them, but as a protection to others in he woods or who may be on the highways some times close at hand. No grunner should shoot in any direction until he is quite certain there is no human being between him or in line with the object he shoots at.

The regular meeting of the Alpha Bible Class was held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Ammerman, West Sixth avenue, last evening. After the business meeting lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. Thirty members were present including the visitors.

V. E. Stine received word Thursday from Greene Castle, Franklin county, of the death of his sister, Mrs. Annie Campbell. Mr. Stine left on the 1:20 train for Green Castle to attend the funeral which will be held Monday forenoon at ten o'clock.

FERNWOOD MAN IS KILLED BY DYNAMITE IN MINE EXPLOSION

Philipsburg, Nov. 2.—Charles Farber, aged about 53 years, residing at Fernwood and employed at Mount Vernon No. 10 mine as an operator of the Richmond Coal Company at Fernwood, was horribly injured by an explosion of dynamite Thursday afternoon, Nov. 2nd.

The dying man was brought to the Cottage State hospital about 5 o'clock and expired three hours later. Both eyes had been blown out, and he received other frightful injuries.

A brother of the deceased, John Farber, of Johnstown, a superintendent of mining operations at Winber for the Berwin-White Coal Mining Company, was wired shortly after the accident. He came on to Philipsburg this morning, had Undertaker John F. Enoch prepare the remains for shipment to Johnstown.

Besides the brother referred to above the explosion victim is survived by a half sister, and a half brother, a wife from whom he had been separated, and three children.

TRAINED HIS DOG TOO SOON

It is illegal in Pennsylvania to train your dogs before September 1st of each year, and if the owner of a dog allows him to pursue game before that time or carries a gun with him while training his dog during the season for training he is liable to fine Joe Toney, who was working with a work train crew of the River Line, learned this much law Thursday to his sorrow. State Game Protector W. J. Davis had Toney arrested for violating the game laws in this regard and it cost him $52.50 before Squire Chorpennig.

Paul Woomer, of Philipsburg, neglected the formality of securing a hunter's license before coming over into Clearfield county to hunt on opening day. Game Warden Davis ran across Woomer sans his license up in the Curry Run country and assessed him $25 for hunting without a license.

W. L. Dethloff has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg.

educator. It follows:

Editor, Gazette, Sir:—

In your issue of September 23rd, your correspondent states the following:

"For the greatest part of her life, Miss Leonard has been actively identified with educational matters. It was interesting, therefore, to find that she was thoroughly in accord with McSparran's attitude toward the department of public instruction."

I have spent 64 years in teaching in Pennsylvania's schools. I am in favor of the present state program in education. I stand squarely on the educational plank of the Democratic platform. In my humble judgment, Dr. Finegan has done more to advance education in the past three years than has been accomplished in the preceding ten years.

This note of explanation is sent because I regard education as of fundamental importance in the life and development of the Commonwealth.

Sincerely yours,

JANE E. LEONARD

If Miss Leonard approves the program and stands on the Democratic platform where must McSparran stand.

Ward Fleming, Esq., of Philipsburg, was the next speaker and made a plea for wholehearted support for his friend and neighbor Harry B. Scott for Senator because he was so eminently fitted for the position and would be a real asset to this district.

He urged the election of the entire ticket.

Chairman Somerville then brought the meeting to a close with a few brief talk in which he solicited the votes of his neighbors and assured them he would represent all the people of the district if sent to Washington. He urged the voters to support the entire Republican ticket.

Hon. Harry B. Scott was next introduced by Chairman Somerville, who referred to him as "a neighbor of mine, whom I am proud to call my friend."

Mr. Scott said he would appreciate the support of Clearfield county Republicans and if sent to Harrisburg would give Governor Pinchot and his policies 100 per cent. support. Said he believed in law enforcement and would be earnest in his endeavors to further the interests of this district and all its people.

G. A. Stewart was the next speaker and after paying glowing tribute to Harry B. Scott he made a special appeal to the friends who supported him at the Republican primaries, for his successful opponent Charles B. Jones, of Ramey, stating he was the character of man this district needed in the legislature.

Hon. Charles B. Jones of Ramey, was then introduced and after pledging himself to support Pinchot and his policies at all times asked for the support of the people, promising to do everything in his power for their interests while at Harrisburg.

Hon. Frank G. Harris, of Clearfield was then called upon and briefly responded, stating that he expected to cast his fifth Republican ballot at next Tuesday's election.

He urged the election of the entire ticket.

Chairman Somerville then brought the meeting to a close with a few remarks in which he spoke of the high character of the men making up the Republican ticket and urged his hearers to "vote it straight."

The meeting was one of the most interesting and most successful in recent years and was attended by Republican workers from almost every precinct in the county all of whom returned to their homes chock full of enthusiasm and with a renewed purpose to get out the vote on election day and to see that the ticket was voted straight from Governor to Legislature.

the January meeting was given to Curwensville. The library committee, headed by W. C. Pentz of this city, reported progress on the circulating library and action will be taken by the officers.

Robert McDougall, the Elk County Agent, was present yesterday afternoon and made a short address which was very helpful to the grangers and other interested listeners.

Following an excellent supper at 6 o'clock the evening session was opened with music and by an address by W. C. Pentz, on "What America Needs Today." There were a number of musical selections last night, and the feature of the session was the conferring of the Fifth Degree by the Jefferson County Pomona Grange degree team. A play "Laughter and Song" was very cleverly produced by members of the Salem Grange, while members of that grange also gave several musical numbers. Professor E. P. Zech played a violin solo that was immensely enjoyed.

The session came to a close late last evening, and a number of grangers who were present from this county returned home by automobile.

WE DEMAND PROOF

While driving to Snow Shoe Wednesday about noon, right close to the lumber mill camps on the Snow Shoe mountain, Davis Moore, salesman for Hoffman & Runk, of Philipsburg, spied a big black bear climbing the bank from the road.

It seems that the bank was soft and stony, making it hard climbing for bruin and he kept slipping back onto the road. Mr. Moore said he tried several times to run him down with his Hup roadster, but couldn't quite reach him. He then got out of the car and tried stoning him.

The bear got up the bank about that time, when behold, Mr. Moore saw three other bears just ahead of the lone one. The motorist's one desire was to have the trusty rifle with which he shot at the three bucks last year while in the Green Woods. He surely would have had a great treat for the Philipsburg people, by showing them four of the nicest and largest bears that ever crossed the Snow Shoe mountains.

Davis Moore declares this is a true bear story.

GONE ARE THE DAYS OF RED FLANNELS, OFF THE MARKET

New York, Nov. 4. (United Press.)—What has happened to the good, old-fashioned ticked muslins and red flannels? They aren't even the best sellers any more on New York's East Side—in fact the stores there don't carry them.

Today's tenement flappers are now the greatest little buyers of gloves silk and crepe de chine lingerie in the world.

If there are any establishments on the main East Side streets dealing in old-fashioned brands, they are careful to keep their wares under cover. To attempt to purchase more cotton garments is an insult to the salesman. He will talk bargains, but his bargains are in silks.

Side by side with old brass shops, kosher markets and second hand dealers are lines upon lines of those whose specialities are "ladies furnishings." Their shelves are filled with the latest in "step-ins" and "slub-downs" in delicate hues and pastel tinted georgette negligees that belie the popular idea that she who dwells in a sixth floor back tenement necessarily wears capote wrap.

"It doesn't take long for these foreign-born girls to get on to American ways of dressing. They want the stuff here that other people buy on Fifth Avenue and we have to keep it in stock for them," remarked an oldtimer.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

CHEER UP, YOU OLD FELLOWS!

Edward Bok's remarks about Sesquicentennial directors over 50 years of age recall the famous controversy aroused a few years ago by the alleged statement of Dr. Osler that a man who passed his sixtieth year was a fit subject for chloroform.

Dr. Osler always claimed he had been misquoted and never seriously meant what he did say, but the world at large professed to take a serious view of the matter, and the question of the duration of man's mental virility became a subject of wide discussion.

Perhaps the most exhaustive article on the subject was "The Age of Mental Virility," by W. A. Newmar Dorland, printed in 1908, in which the writer gave a list of 400 of the world's greatest thinkers and workers in modern times.

He states that his research was brought about by a conversation with Dr. Harris A. Slocum, of Philadelphia, over the tendency to relegate middle-aged and older men to the oblivion of immovable desuetude to give the more progressive and aggressive young men a clear track in the rush to the front.

In selecting his famous "400," he grouped them as workers and thinkers. Among the latter he placed the great warriors and great inventors.

The average initial age of the 400 records was 24 years. The workers began at 22, the thinkers at 26. The average duration of mental process was 40 years; for the workers, 41 years; for the thinkers, 39. The longest term of duration was shown to be by inventors, 49 years.

Seventy-eight per cent. closed their life work between 50 and 80 years, and 85 per cent. after the 50th year.

Continuing, Dr. Dorland says: "The sixth decade of life has been the most prolific in human achievement, and well may be designated the age of masterwork. In action alone its accomplishments have revolutionized history, and it is most difficult to conceive what would be the present status of the world's affairs had these 10 years of individual life never existed."

Columbus could not then have discovered the American continent, Marlborough could not have won his great victory of Blenheim, Morse's invention of the telegraphic alphabet would have been lost, Richelieu could not have concluded the peace of Westphalia which gave Alsace-Lorraine to France, Caesar could not have corrected the calendar, Cromwell could not have established the Protectorate, Lincoln could not have issued his emancipation proclamation. Loyola could not have founded the Society of Jesus, nor Jefferson established the Democratic party. Wycliff would not have made the first complete English version of the Bible, nor Luther the first complete translation of the Book of Washington would not have become first President of the United States.

In fact, in a long list Dr. Dorland shows how between the ages of 50 and 60 years were accomplished the great achievements of Swedenborg, Lershel, Peel, Canning, Edmund Burke, Warren Hastings, Garibaldi, Dr. Leidy, Buffon, Darwin, Cuvier, Huxley, Herbert Spencer, Hugh Miller, Haint Simon, Galileo, John Will, Ada m Smith, Macaulay, Diderot, Tyndall, Reynolds, Velasquez, da Vinci, Gainsborough, Romney, Titian, Milton, Dante, Corot, Landseer, Dumas, Hugo, Dickens, Scott, Bach, Handel, Haydn, Verdi, Wagner, Guizot, Benjamin West, Franklin, Con-

Fine Closed Cars With Fine Car Equipment

Coupe $1445—Sedan $1465 F. O. B. Detroit Tax Extra

It is now very generally conceded that the mechanical foundation of Jewett cars is one of the great engineering triumphs of the year. There could be no more perfect six-cylinder motor. There could be no stronger or more efficient chassis from radiator to rear axle.

But inspect the Sedan and Coupe and you will make another startling discovery. Despite the extremely low prices, you will find yourself viewing the finest of body work, upholstery and general appointments. Then, and then only, you will appreciate that these are fine cars that set an entirely new standard of value. Here there is no compromise.

Study the list of Jewett features at the right. They tell a story of refinement that has never been equalled in the popular priced field.

Jewett Closed Car Features

Neither fade nor soil easily.
Extra broad cushions over deep cushion springs.
Ample leg room for all passengers.
Full steel chassis.
Broad plate glass windows which slide in felt lined channels—rattle and rain-proof. Easy operating window lifts.
Six roller curtains.
Dome light.
Locks on all doors.
Valve-in-head transmission lock.
Drip moulding which prevents rain running down over the doors and side windows.
Cowl ventilator.
Rear and front fenders.
Weatherstripping.
Brake bands with tension, and 2 sets of bulbs.
Double shock absorbers.
Sedan: Knee Rail, foot rest, pockets on the doors, ample room for five passengers. Four doors, of course.
Coupe: As roomy as 4-passenger closed car listing for $2,000 or more and really comfortable for four adults.

The complete Paige-Jewett line of six-cylinder passenger cars offers a selection of thirteen models priced from $995 to $3350. The complete line of Paige trucks meets every hauling need. They are sold and serviced by Paige Dealers everywhere.

LOCAL YOUNG MAN MARRIED AT WILKINSBURG

In the home of the bride's father C. R. Ferguson, of South Avenue, Wilkesburg, the marriage of Miss Clara E. Ferguson, and Mr. Lee G. Hills of Clearfield was solemnized at 7:45 o'clock on Wednesday evening, the Rev. T. F. Kohler of Glassport, performing the ceremony. The bride's gown was of white lace over Canton Crepe. The veil of rose point lace was caught with orange blossoms and the bridal bouquet was composed of sweetheart roses and Valley lilies. Mrs. George B. Page, as matron of honor, was gowned in apricot crepe and carried an bouquet of dahlias. The flower girl Mary Elizabeth Ferguson wore frock of white crepe with sash of blue and carried a Colonial bouquet. William D. McKelvey acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hills will make their home in Clearfield, Pa.

Perhaps you are not interested in politics; many men and women are not. That is unfortunate. The human race usually lets things go until somebody is hurt then raises a howl. Next to indifference there is the foolish idea of experimenting under the belief that our daily tasks and pleasures will not be affected by whoever may be in the different offices. Youngstown, Ohio, elected a mayor as a joke. Few citizens have appreciated the joke since it was perpetrated.

Tuesday we elect two U. S. Senators; probably we of this state will never vote for two U. S. Senators at the same election again. In Colonel Frederick B. Kerr, Clearfield has a candidate for this next to highest elective office in the republic, and no finer type of citizen could be found in all the country. He is the choice of the Democratic party and stands high above the state leaders. Were Mr. Kerr not aligned politically with the League of Nations advocates, the low tariff party and the McSparran state ticket, his would be a practically unanimous vote in this county. In the words of a contemporary, "Principles, not men," are going to be considered and unfortunately Mr. Kerr must suffer for his political belief in the League, the tariff and his company on the state ticket. For Congress this city has two candidates, Hon. Wm. I. Swoope and Hon. J. Frank Snyder, both sterling men, and again thoughtful voters will consider "Principles, not men." Our national administration is Republican, led by President Harding and, unless there be harmony between the Chief Executive and Congress, there cannot be progress. The election of Mr. Swoope will mean the placing of a man in Congress who will carry out the full program of the Republican party, which will result in a continuance of such desirable conditions of industry as is now being enjoyed by all who wish to work. It will mean the keeping out of foreign leagues and entanglements, a further reduction of governmental expenses, a stone wall against the incoming of foreign sweat shop manufactured articles which would stop our own mills and factories. Think well, voters, before giving that purely sentimental, complimentary or friendship vote. Our federal government seems a stranger to us but our national prosperity is dependent upon it.

When we come to the state government by reason of our close proximity to Harrisburg we feel more at home. There was a great deal of dissatisfaction with the old Republican party in Pennsylvania. That dissatisfaction crystallized in a great popular movement behind a more popular man, Gifford Pinchot, who is now the undisputed leader and the dictator of the aims, purposes and policies of the Republican party. He carries the mandate from the majority of Republicans and all the old leaders have rallied to his standard. You know his platform. He has shouted it from the house tops. He has stood back of it through thick and thin, enlisting and commanding strength and support by his fearless acknowledgement of the ills of his own party. But Gifford Pinchot must have more than votes, he must have more than a certificate of have a State Senate and a State Assembly to put into law his recommendations. Recently he visited Clearfield and from the steps of the Court House asked the voters to give him Harry H. Scott in the Senate and Chas. B. Jones, the Assembly from the first district and D. D. Miller from the second district. To send Mr. Pinchot to Harrisburg without a working crew would rot this state back four years. It is no secret that the Democratic candidates opposing Mr. Scott, Mr. Jones and Mr. Miller are likewise opposing Mr. Pinchot and would continue to do so if elected. We cannot close this article without paying our respects to our townsman, W. I. Betts, as a fine type of citizen, generous hearted, clean living, a patriot of the highest order but again, principles, not men, must be considered. In Pinchot, Scott, Jones and Miller this community will have a quartette from which there will come no discord.

(EDITORIAL)
TESTIMONIALS TO SWOOPE FROM "THE CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN"

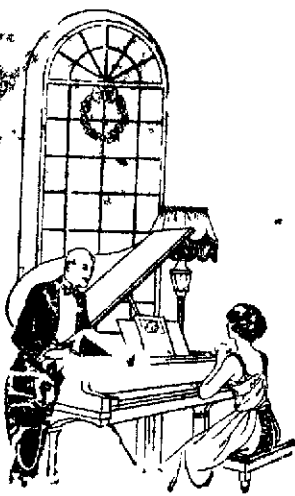

In answer to the many disagreeable things which "The Clearfield Republican" has been saying about William I. Swoope during the present campaign, we herewith quote some of the commendatory articles which Shorty wrote when he was not biased by political prejudice. In the issue of "The Clearfield Republican" for March 15, 1915, appeared the following:

"W. I. Swoope, former District Attorney, is after one of the deputyships under Attorney General Francis Shunk Brown at Harrisburg. While Bill and the Republican have never been very close to complete harmonious relations politically, we take pleasure in recommending him for the job. He is a good lawyer, is industrious, and will perform the duties of any position he may be called to fill with fidelity and with credit. He has all kinds of A-1 endorsements and does not need anything from us. But this is thrown in for what it is worth, and without any solicitation whatever, direct or indirect."

And when Mr. Swoope was appointed Deputy Attorney General by Governor Sprout in January, 1919, the appointment was very favorably commented on by the press of the State. But no paper was more laudatory in its notice than "The Clearfield Republican." It commended Mr. Swoope as a man and as a lawyer, and prophesied that he would make an excellent official.

These pleasant things were said by Mr. Short about Mr. Swoope, when Mr. Short was not conducting a Democratic campaign.

OTHELLO RANGE

...IS...

The Perfect Range

The OTHELLO is the perfect range, because every part and principle is the result of test and elimination.

But aside from the mechanical principles, did you ever stop to consider the features that govern a woman, in making her choice of a Range? They are refined simplicity, ease of operation, and durability—good service.

The OTHELLO in a tasteful shade of Enamel, selected with reference to other Kitchen furnishings, may be quite as pleasing to the eye as the Piano in the Parlor. It is clean—attractive—efficient. Its possession assures the contented feeling, which is the accompaniment of perfect work.

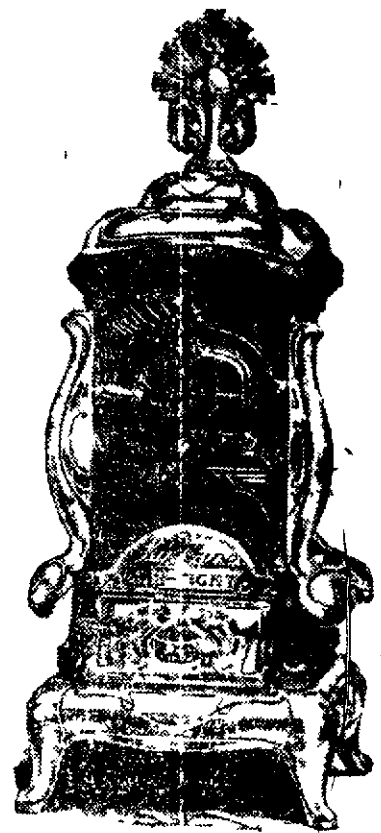

The OTHELLO is everywhere considered the standard.

There are over 300,000 housekeepers using the OTHELLO Range today. When the great number of rival cooking Ranges is considered—there certainly must be a reason.

The advent of Porcelain Enamel, as applied to cooking apparatus, has rescued the lowly range from its dark corner of the Kitchen to a "place in the Sun."

SUNSHINE AIR-TIGHT DOUBLE HEATER

This is an entirely new production, original in design and embodying all of the good points of the most successful Air-Tights previously put upon the market. Already it is receiving the most favorable comments, as to its splendid appearance, and completeness in every respect. Immediately upon its introduction, a voluntary letter of commendation was received from one of the largest handlers of Air-Tight stoves, in Pennsylvania. This has been followed by others, of a similar character, quite unsolicited by us. So that we are convinced, we have in this stove, the very best Air-Tight, anywhere to be found.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 5

JESUS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN

LESSON TEXT—Luke 4:31-41; 5:12-26.

GOLDEN TEXT—Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sickness.—Matt. 8:17.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 9:35; Mark 1:21-45.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How a Sick Man Was Brought to Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Healing the Paralytic.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Power to Forgive Sin.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus' Ministry to Human Need.

Since the topic sets forth Jesus as the Great Physician, it will be better for adult classes, especially, to take the larger text chosen by the committee and note the several outstanding cases of His healing. For some classes it will be better to study the one case of healing, namely, the healing of the paralytic.

1. Jesus Healing a Demoniac (4:31-37).

While engaged in teaching in the synagogue He was interrupted by a man who had an unclean spirit. Jesus rebuked the demon and compelled him to come out of the man. This healing shows Jesus not only gracious, but powerful to set free the whole brood of diabolical passions, such as lust, envy, anger and jealousy which rule men.

2. Jesus Heals a Woman of a Great Fever (vv. 38-43).

Peter's mother-in-law was prostrate with a great fever. They of Peter's household besought Jesus for her. Jesus rebuked the fever and it left her so that she immediately rose and ministered unto them. No earthly physician had ever been known to heal in that way. Divine healing is immediate and complete. We should distinguish between divine healing and faith healing. Faith healing is the result of the action of the mind upon the body and is measured by the degree of the faith, while divine healing is the action of the power of God upon the diseased one, and is always complete and immediate, because it is measured by the power of the Healer, God. His fame spread abroad and many kinds of divers diseases were brought unto Him and He healed them all, even casting out demons and forbidding them to testify of Him.

3. Jesus Heals a Leprous (5:12-16).

Leprosy was a most loathsome and terrible disease. Because of its foulness one afflicted therewith was an outcast. The disease was incurable by man, therefore the leper was regarded as hopeless and dead. In response to the leper's earnest request Jesus touched him and bade the leprosy to depart, and immediately he was healed and cleansed. Leprosy is a type of sin. Jesus has power to heal and cleanse and restore.

4. Jesus Heals a Paralytic (5:17-26).

1. Watched by the Pharisees and Doctors (v. 17). Jesus' fame spread abroad, and this only incited jealousy on the part of these men.

2. The Paralytic Brought (vv. 18, 19). This is a fine lesson in Christian service. They could not heal the man, but could bring him to Jesus, who could heal and restore. They had faith in Jesus to heal him. No effort which is required to bring a sinner to Jesus should be regarded as too great.

3. The Man's Sins Forgiven (v. 20). Jesus looked back of the palsy to its cause—sin. All disease and death is the result of sin. Jesus saw the faith of those not only who brought him, but of the man himself.

4. The Purpose of Miracles (vv. 21, 22). The Pharisees accused Christ of blasphemy when He declared the man's sins forgiven. Jesus showed them that back of the beneficent deed to the man was the demonstration of His power. The main purpose in the working of miracles is the authentication of the divine mission of the one performing them. The working of the miracle was to demonstrate His authority to atone for sin and to grant forgiveness. While the divine power and authority are thus shown, the wisdom and love of God are shown in that in all cases the supernatural work is for the good of the individual. A true miracle is never spectacular. It is not merely a demonstration of power, but the working of power for beneficent ends, the good of some one in need.

5. Relative Value of Physical Ills and Moral and Spiritual Misdeeds (v. 23). Physical ills are less serious than the sins which cause them. In dealing with them we should follow the example of Christ and first deal with the cause.

Self-Love.

Self-love is a cup without any bottom; you might pour all the great lakes into it and never fill it up.—O. W. Holmes.

A Thought for Today.

Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? To his own master he standeth or falleth.—Romans 14:4.

The Lord Knoweth.

The Lord knoweth our frame and remembereth that we are dust.—Ps. 103:14.

When He's Telling It.

7:30 P. M. Wednesday, prayer, song and Bible study. Let everyone bring a Bible.

The Woman's Missionary Society requests all the members of the church and congregation to bring to the church Sunday morning or evening (tell the pastor if you live far from the church and your bundle will be called for) the following: Warm garments of every description; suits and overcoats; sweaters of all sizes; shawls and mufflers; skirts and warm dresses; stockings and socks of all sizes; underwear of all sizes; unbleached cotton cloth with needles and thread and buttons, for the making of underwear clothing in Russia. Do not forget the children. These things must leave here the first of the week as the ship leaves New York the last of this month for Russia. So rush in your gifts for Russia.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN

A big day at St. John's Lutheran church tomorrow.

Sunday Nov. 5th has been designated as "Laura E. Gilliland Day" by the local congregation in honor of one of their members who has dedicated her life to the cause of missions. Sister Laura E. Gilliland has labored for seven years in Africa seeking to carry out the Master's command when He said—"Go ye." The object of this day is twofold—to keep before our people the great cause of missions and to emphasize the challenge that this noble woman by her consecrated life presents to all our young people, in the hope that others may give their lives to this great cause.

Any congregation counts it a privilege and an honor to have a returned missionary bring a personal message direct from the field. St. John's will have an exceptional privilege tomorrow of having two returned missionaries with them at all the services. Miss Mabel Dyssinger who has also been laboring in our African field will be present and speak at the morning service. Sister Laura will speak at the evening service. A feast of good things awaits all who will come.

The greatest thing St. John's has ever undertaken is the contemplated nursery to be built on our African field to be known as "The Laura E. Gilliland Nursery." Here the children will be gathered and given Christian instruction and training. Here they will grow up under a Christian influence that will equip them for the great service they will be able to render among their own people as Christian workers. Who can estimate the value of such a building? Every dollar put into this building is a dollar loaned to the Lord at a very high rate of interest. Not in dollars and cents but in souls that are above price. What you do for one of His, you do for Him. Our first offering for this building will be lifted on Sunday. Every one is asked to make an investment. It is no gamble. Rich dividends will be paid if you invest with a prayer and give "as unto the Lord."

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

G. R. Alban, Pastor.

9:45 Sunday school rally. H. S. Hummel, superintendent.

11:00 Public worship. Sermon by the pastor. Subject, "The Light of Heaven in the Soul of Man."

7:00 Christian Endeavor. D. W. Hummel, president.

8:00 Public worship. Sermon by the pastor. Subject, "The Christ Garment."

7:30 Wednesday, prayer meeting and Bible study.

Everybody welcome.

WOODLAND M. E.

G. B. M. Reidell, Pastor.

Sabbath school 10 a. m. James Baird in charge. This is the Missionary Sabbath. Offering for missions. Preaching services at 11 a. m. Sermon by the pastor. Theme, "Protection." Psalms 91:1 will be the basis of the morning sermon. Friends of the church, also those having no church home are invited to worship in our church at this hour. "The route to a Protection, set forth by David in the 91st Psalm is the only safe route for pilgrims of this day and age. To be under the shadow of the Almighty is the only safety." The evening service at 7 p. m. for the young people. No evening preaching service as the pastor is holding evangelistic services at Dale church.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. E. C. Reeve, Pastor.

9:30 Reedsville chapel. E. L. Peterson, superintendent.

10:30 Morning worship. Sermon, "The Lord Called Me."

11:45 Sabbath school. C. R. Bloom, superintendent.

7:00 Senior and Junior Young Peoples meetings. H. B. Hartwick will speak at the Senior meeting.

7:30 Evening worship. Dr. Reeve will preach the last sermon of the series "My Religion." The subject, "The Fact of Loyalty." A musical program of fifteen minutes beginning at 7:15. Organ numbers: Tannhauser March, Wagner; "Poet and Peasant," Von Suppe; Largo from "New World Symphony," Dvorak. Duet on flute and French horn by Edwin Howard and Thomas Bryan. Anthem for morning, "Forward Be Our Watchword." Anthem for evening, "Prayer," by Dion Kennedy.

Sabbath Day will witness the congregation bringing their self-denial offering for the sufferers in the Smyrna disaster. This calls for the sharing of what we have to save those who are destitute.

Bundles of clothes are being left in the hall of the church at the Pine street entrance to be sent to the suffering people, men, women and children in the Near East. Have you any castoff or outgrown garments which you would like to do a work of mercy send them down to the church this week and they will go at once to clothe the suffering ones who are destitute.

A cordial invitation to all to worship with us.

stable, Ribens, Michael Angelo, Aristotle, Plato, Goethe, the great historians Gibbon, Edison, Sterne, Swift, Marshal Turenne, Lamartine, Machiavelli, John Warrnamaker, A. T. Stewart, J. Pierpont Morgan, Andrew Carnegie, A. J. Drexel, Commodore Vanderbilt and other great captains of industry.

Not only have the greatest achievements been accomplished by men over 60 years of age, but many have been accomplished by men over 60, over 70 and even over 80 years of age, and it would probably interest Mr. Bok to know that between the ages of 60 and 70 years Napoleon revolutionized mathematics; Leverrier re-discovered the planetary theories; Blanche and Mother won their greatest battle; Bonaparte his greatest campaign; Cardinal Newman his Apologia; Grote his history of Greece; Hume his history of Latin Christianity; Michelet his history of France; Audobon his natural history; Pasteur his work on hydrophobia; Cervantes his "Don Quixote"; Butler his Hudibras; John Adams was President of the United States; Crispien Prime Minister of Italy; Disraeli and Gladstone Prime Ministers of England; Monroe promulgated the Monroe doctrine; Michael Angelo painted his "Last Judgment," Turner his "Fighting Temeraire," Benjamin West his "Christ Healing the Sick," Bancroft wrote his great history, Hadyn composed his "Creation," and Wagner his "Nibelung Ring."

All these and many others, including our own Daniel Webster and Henry Clay, were strong personalities in the decade from 60 to 70, and any suggestion that they should retire from active work in favor of younger men would have been ridiculed.

In conclusion, since Dr. Dorland made his exhaustive investigation the world has passed through a great war. Suppose all officials and generals over 60 years of age had been retired and younger and less experienced men put in command, the British forces would have been without French, Haig, and its now famous commanders; Lloyd George would not have turned back the Hun; later, Marshals Joffre and Foch would not have turned back the Hun at the Marne; Petain and the other French generals would not have held him at Verdun; Clemenceau would not have been the "Tiger of France"; Diaz would not have routed the Austrians at the Piave; and President Wilson would not have guided the great American nation safely to a victorious termination of the war; nor would the heroes of the Argonne, Belleau Woods and the other fields where they swept all opposition from their path, have been led by the splendid commanders under the direction of perhaps the most popular

American military commander of the twentieth century, John J. Pershing. In the words of Billy McLean, the 80-year-old boxer, no man, if he takes care of himself, is old until he cashes in.

HUNTING ACCIDENTS ARE REPORTED FROM JEFFERSON COUNTY

Seth Haag, of Troutville, is a victim of the first day of hunting season, and is in a critical condition in the Maple Avenue hospital. In fact his condition is such that although the accident took place yesterday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock, it was deemed necessary to postpone an operation until sometime today Haag was hunting when the accident occurred. A single barrel shotgun was discharged about 18 inches from his thigh entering the limb about 6 inches above the knee on the outer side. The injured man was taken to a house and a doctor from DuBois was called. Upon the doctor's arrival and a brief examination made, he saw at once that it was a case for the hospital and phoned back to DuBois for an ambulance. Mr. Haag is suffering considerable from loss of blood, but is suffering mostly from shock. It is hoped his condition will permit an operation today.

Notwithstanding the large number of hunters in the woods of this section, few accidents were reported. The only one in this immediate section occurred near Caledonia, fifteen year old Joseph Lumbard being the victim.

The youth was out the first day, hunting with his father, when a flock of pheasants flew up between them. Both took a shot at the birds and it is presumed that a pellet from the discharge of the father's gun struck a tree or rock and glanced off, hitting the youth in the right eye. The young man was taken to Clearfield hospital, where X-rays were taken to ascertain the extent of injury to the eye.

Near Trade City Noble McCormick received a shot of 38 in his left leg when his companion with whom he was hunting accidentally discharged the contents of his shotgun into the leg. He was taken to the Punxsutawney hospital.

Forbes Gumbert, of Coolspring, accidentally discharged the contents of his own shot gun into his foot on the opening day of the season. The injured man was taken to the Adrian hospital.

Blaine Kinter, of Punxsutawney, received one lone shot just below his left eye, while out hunting with a companion. The companion shot at a bird and a pellet glanced off the limb of a tree, hitting Mr. Kinter.

Two hunters said to be from Pittsburgh, routed out two rabbits, one of which took refuge under a mule that had just brought out a trip from the Noerr mine are Cortez. One of the hunters, banged away at the bunny and a shot penetrated the mule's eye. The hunters agreed to settle.

CLOSING WORDS

Elisha Kent Kane

This is my last appeal before election. It is likely that I shall win. But if you stay at home, I shall be defeated. I have hired no poll workers, no messengers, no organizers. The Prohibition Party, on whose ticket only I stand, has no money to use for my election. Letters which I am receiving from different parts of the district breathe devoted enthusiasm so there may be volunteers urging their neighbors to vote for me. Perhaps you yourself may be one. If so, you may truthfully say that I propose to go to Congress as the choice of the whole people independent of party. In my letter sent into your homes, to forty-five thousand women voters regardless of party, and in my published advertisements, I have set forth my issues. They are not contrary to the doctrines of either Republicans or Democrats; but take up very important matters which both these parties have been neglecting. I have made no other promises, public or private; and on all other issues, such as the tariff, the tariff jangle, I shall keep an open mind and a level head. In my publications I have promised, as to such matters, to try to avoid sudden and disastrous changes and extreme measures which upset business and throw people out of work. I propose to influence Democratic and Republican leaders to get together for permanent moderate measures. Being free from caucus or party rule, I shall have exceptional power.

Look out for lies circulated so close to election that I cannot contradict them. Already two Republican dailies, in editorials for Swopes, falsely assert that I was Democratic candidate for Congress at large in 1920. Actually, in 1916 I was Prohibition candidate and, as such, tried to get a Democratic endorsement in hopes of defeating any one of the three very wet Republican candidates. A Republican daily alleges that I am an "assistant Democrat" because a several times the Prohibition party, by my influence, has endorsed and elected dry Democrats over wet Republicans. For like reason, it might call me an "assistant Republican." With my influence, the Prohibition party endorsed and elected dry Republican Congressman Barclay, Patton, Jones (and term), but endorsed and failed to elect to Congress the dry Democrat Tobias. We endorsed and elected the dry Democrat State Treasurer Berry. In the same way I helped to send the dry Democrat Milton to General Assembly and afterwards to State Senate, and the dry Republican Catlin for Assembly for two terms. Catlin was re-nominated by us this year but, as he withdrew, we substituted, and expect to elect, the dry Democrat Max Moore. Personally I voted for the dry Republicans Shiley for Congress and Roosevelt for President, and I did my proudest to make the dry Democrat Bryan stand on our ticket for President in 1920. That's the kind of assistant Republican Democrat I am. I ask Democrats and Republicans to send me to Congress to work with the best men of both parties.

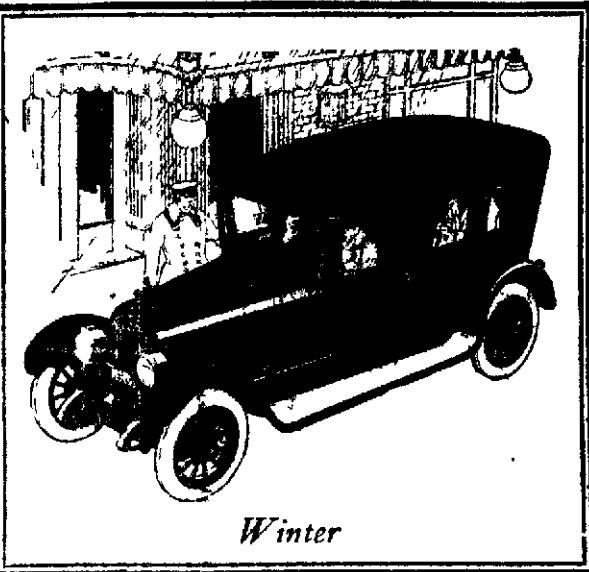

My expense account published after election will show that David S. McCalmont, former Prohibition State Chairman, contributed $100, and my wife and I bear all the rest. I shall be under obligations only to you who vote for me. It will show that I spent money on the National, Pennsylvania State, and McKean County Prohibition Committees, on the Prohibition Foundation and Flying Squadron, and paid for newspaper advertising and for getting out my letter and pho-

Pasturization Protects the Baby

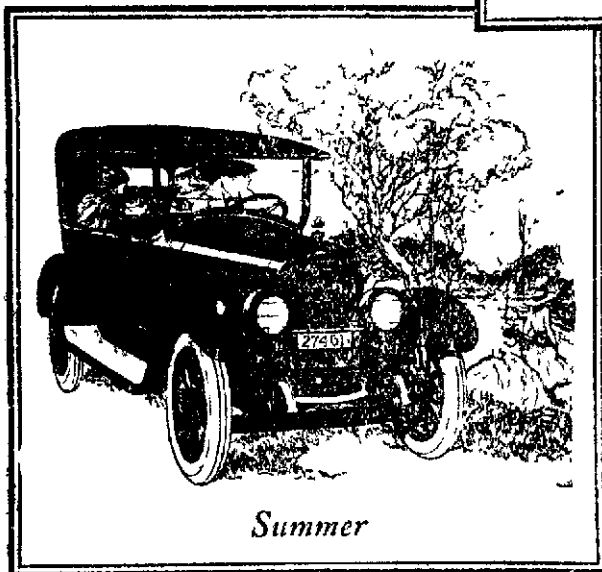

The process of pasteurization thru which all our milk passes protects the baby who is being "brought up on a bottle." There's absolutely no danger, providing the bottles and other things are given proper care, of the baby getting any of the possible germs that lurk in milk that has not gone thru the pasteurization process. These germs are absolutely done away with thru the process.

Feed the baby all the Clearfield Milk he or she can drink and you'll be surprised at the way regular gains are being made right along.

Two Cars in One For the Price of One Sedan and Touring Car for Only $3350

Here is something new in motordom—a final development of the two-in-one idea. A Marmon sedan in winter, a Marmon touring car in summer. Yet $1,035 less than a standard Marmon sedan and only $165 more than a standard touring car. No wonder motorists everywhere have welcomed this car and are making it a popular seller.

In 30 Minutes

Think of it—you can convert this 7-passenger Marmon Phaeton to either sedan or touring car in half an hour. But do not be mistaken—do not confuse this with the installation of winter-sides, old-fashioned, rarely, unsatisfactory.

The New Marmon Phaeton is a distinct type, a final development and refinement of the convertible idea. From the beginning it was designed by Marmon engineers as a combination car—every detail has been worked out to perfection.

This car solves the eternal question: "Shall I buy a sedan or a touring car?" Now you can have both, yet at a modest price. Snug comfort in winter, open airiness in summer.

And "It costs so little to drive a Marmon"

Both in maintenance and operation the Marmon is economical, as every owner will tell you. The Marmon of today is the outcome of 20 years of building fine cars, and Marmon owners everywhere agree that they possess the finest form of transportation at the lowest cost per mile.

A new Marmon achievement in design and construction

Marmon designers are first to perfect a convertible car. For years the demand has been growing. First crude winter sides were employed, bought locally, not always fitting the car. They looked badly, they squeaked, they were not weather-tight.

Sensing the public desires, Marmon designers set about designing a body which, from the chassis up, would be easily convertible, one which would be both beautiful and practical.

It took three years to produce a body like this and not until it was perfected was it offered to the public.

Now it is ready, in fact, hundreds are in service throughout the country and owners are delighted.

Inspect it

Forget all the makeshift winter-side attempts you have ever seen. Be prejudiced against them if you wish.

Then see this new Marmon Enclosed

Phaeton. See how cleverly Marmon designers have combined art and engineering, how they have succeeded in producing a body which in winter is a real sedan, yet which in summer is a real touring car.

Note the way many problems have been solved. For instance, sit in the back seat. As a sedan, you have the vision and comfort of a standard sedan. As a touring car, you have a wider, less obstructed vision than ever, due to the newly developed Panorama Top.

Look at the car from a distance. Note its new low lines, its added grace and beauty, its smart appearance.

And remember that the price for this remarkable convertible car is only $3,350—think of all you get at about the touring car price, and how much you save from the standard sedan price.

Worthy of the chassis

Remember, also, that this Marmon-

designed and Marmon-built body is mounted on the famous Marmon chassis, the most dependable, the most enduring, the most economical chassis ever built.

This is the same chassis which is used with all types of bodies, even for the costly, exclusive custom-built bodies that have given the Marmon such international distinction.

This is the chassis which a nation-wide survey shows to cost so little for maintenance—only $4.35 per month. This is the chassis which has made such wonderful records for dependability and freedom from attention.

Come and see this enclosed Phaeton and prepare to be surprised. It is bound to claim your admiration, as it has thousands of wise motorists everywhere. Bring the family. Let us take you out on a demonstration trip.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Fred Pilkington, a former Curwensville resident, now of Clearfield, spent several hours in town yesterday.

Mrs. Sarah Ammerman, who was so sorely afflicted and almost lost sight of her eyes for a month, is slowly recovering her usual health, greatly to the gratification of her many friends.

Walter Fullerton has moved his family from north of Filbert Street and is now domiciled in a part of the V. M. Reed dwelling on North Pine street.

Mrs. S. C. Russell left for New City Thursday and will join her sister, Mrs. Dr. Grosse, for a short farewell visit ere the latter sails for her home in France. On her way home Mrs. Russell will stop for a visit with her brother, Chas. E. Patton in Chester county.

William Bennett is reported as being seriously ill at his home in the Naulton section of town.

About half past two o'clock yesterday morning the fire alarm whistle routed the Rescue boys from their warm beds on the jump. The fire was finally located in a house on South Side of upper Anderson Creek bridge and occupied by Cash Clark and family. The firemen entered the building, but found no flame but lots of smoke. After dumping a lot of stuff out the windows the smouldering fire was finally conquered. The origin of the fire is not clearly known, but the story is told by a boy, is that he went to bed and left a lamp burning which exploded.

The fire bell in the tower at Public building is of about as much use as a 1776 snow ball. It has been out of commission so long that firemen have almost forgotten that it ever was there.

Wil-on Maneval, who has been connected with the brick yard, as a locomotive engineer for more than twenty years, has resigned his position, the same taking effect on November 1st. Mr. Maneval has an enviable record in hauling his train over the mountain clay road. He has never had an accident nor had a man injured during his long period of service. He was an every day man and was on the job snow, rain or shine. The men always trusted to his judgment in traversing the mountain side road leading from the hard clay mines to the plant and felt perfectly safe on the train when "Wils" was handling the engine's throttle.

A number of Republican voters, both male and female attended the big Republican party rally at Clearfield yesterday evening. The intention was to take one of the town's hands along, but arrangement was not made soon enough to get the bandmen together in time.

At a meeting of Joshua Earl Sines Post No. 565, American Legion held on Thursday evening the following resolution was unanimously passed: "Realizing the need of a new High School building and in keeping with the principles of the American Legion, and its educational program, we hereby resolve to give our unqualified support to the bond issue and to the school board and to the citizens of Curwensville in their efforts to erect a new High School building in Curwensville commensurate with our urgent needs and modern ideals, and furthermore to help augment the bond issue of $24,000 to a sum that will provide adequate educational facilities for the rising generation."

It is notified that for the November-December term of County Court, five Curwensville people will be summoned to appear for jury duty, viz: H. S. Shearer, John Myrsky, Mrs. Rose Strickland, Roy Strickland and Mrs. Mary Hile.

Chief Clark has been sent off under the weather for several days past, fighting off an attack of indigestion and severe cramps.

William Woodside went to Pittsburgh early this week, and drove home in a new Chevrolet car for Agent Bonnell. It has all the late and modern improvements attached and the body is something to look twice at.

Chicken pox has become quite prevalent among the children in several sections of the town and Health Officer Weaver is wearing out considerable shoe leather posting up notices.

WOODLAND

Mrs. N. G. Stewart went to Tyrone Sunday to visit her sister-in-law Miss Blanche Stewart, who is ill of typhoid fever at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Heberling.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Livingston spent the week-end at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adams of Bigler.

A number of our people attended the Halloween celebration and parade at Philipsburg Tuesday evening.

About thirty members and friends of Mrs. Varner's class of girls of the M. E. Sunday school held a Halloween party at the home of Arline Wheeling on Tuesday evening. They had a delightful time and greatly enjoyed the delicious refreshments served at the close of a perfect evening.

Mrs. Hazel Dayton of Tyrone is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Duffey of Railroad street.

Mrs. Reed Barger and N. G. Stewart were called to Tyrone on Wednesday on account of the serious illness of their sister, Miss Blanche Stewart.

Mrs. Mary Ginge-y and daughters have a hive of bees getting ready for that Bald Eagle Sunday.

A number of young people held a Halloween party in Swift's Hall on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Varner spent Thursday at Bigler, where she attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Redifer.

Mrs. Arch Devling and Mrs. M. A. Peters were Clearfield visitors on Thursday.

The Philathea Class of the M. E. Sunday school was delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Polkinghorn. This class has a monstrous Christmas bazaar planned for the 8th and 9th of December and are as busy as a bee at the M. E. parsonage.

Miss Mildred Schickling of Clearfield attended a Halloween party and spent the night with her school friend Bessie Baker.

Miss Alva Kirk, Mrs. Irene Thatcher and daughter Edith of East Waverford, Pa., former parishioners of the Rev. G. B. M. Reidell, have returned to their homes after spending a week as the guests of Mrs. Reidell at the M. E. parsonage.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Fred Pilkington, a former Curwensville resident, now of Clearfield, spent several hours in town yesterday.

Mrs. Sarah Ammerman, who was so sorely afflicted and almost lost sight of her eyes for a month, is slowly recovering her usual health, greatly to the gratification of her many friends.

Walter Fullerton has moved his family from north of Filbert Street and is now domiciled in a part of the V. M. Reed dwelling on North Pine street.

Mrs. S. C. Russell left for New City Thursday and will join her sister Mrs. Dr. Grosse, for a short farewell visit ere the latter sails for her home in France. On her way home Mrs. Russell will stop for a visit with her brother, Chas. E. Patton in Chester county.

William Bennett is reported as being seriously ill at his home in the Naulton section of town.

About half past two o'clock yesterday morning the fire alarm whistle routed the Rescue boys from their warm beds on the jump. The fire was finally located in a house on South Side of upper Anderson Creek bridge and occupied by Cash Clark and family. The firemen entered the building, but found no flame but lots of smoke. After darning a lot of stuff out the windows the smouldering fire was finally conquered. The origin of the fire is not clearly known, but the story is told by a boy, is that he went to bed and left a lamp burning which exploded.

The fire bell in the tower at Public building is of about as much use as a 1776 snow ball. It has been out of commission so long that firemen have almost forgotten that it ever was there.

Wilson Maneval, who has been connected with the brick yard, as a locomotive engineer for more than twenty years, has resigned his position, the same taking effect on November 1st. Mr. Maneval has an enviable record in hauling his train over the mountain clay road. He has never had an accident nor had a man injured during his long period of service. He was an every day man and was on the job, snow, rain or shine. The men always trusted to his judgment in traversing the mountain side road leading from the hard clay mines to the plant and felt perfectly safe on the train when "Wilk" was handling the engine's throttle.

A number of Republican voters, both male and female attended the big Republican party rally at Clearfield yesterday evening. The intention was to take one of the town's hands along, but arrangement was not made soon enough to get the bandmen together in time.

At a meeting of Joshua Paul Sines Post No. 565, American Legion held on Thursday evening the following resolution was unanimously passed. "Realizing the need of a new High School building and in keeping with the principles of the American Legion, and its educational program, we hereby resolve to give our unqualified support to the bond issue and to the school board and to the citizens of Curwensville in their efforts to erect a new High School building in Curwensville commensurate with our urgent needs and modern ideals, and furthermore to help augment the bond issue of $34,000 to a sum that will provide adequate educational facilities for the rising generation in Curwensville and vicinity."

A very commendable resolution and shows the right spirit of patriotism and citizenship, whether the bond issue is granted or not. The writer is informed that several other town organizations have passed favorable resolutions relative to vote on the question.

It is noticed that for the November-December term of County Court, five Curwensville people will be summoned to appear for jury duty, viz H. S. Shearer, John Myrsky, Mrs. Rose Strickland Ray Strickland and Mr. Mary Hile.

Chief Clark has been sent off under the weather for several days past, fighting off an attack of indigestion and severe cramps.

William Woodside went to Pittsburgh early this week, and drove home in a new Chevrolet car for Agent Boneall. It has all the late and modern improvements attached and the body is something to look at.

Chicken pox has become quite prevalent among the children in several sections of the town. A Health Officer Weaver is seen on corners displaying shoe leather posting a notice.

WOODLAND

Mrs. N. G. Stewart went to Tyrone Sunday to visit her sister-in-law Miss Blanche Stewart, who is ill of typhoid fever at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Hobeeling.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Livingston spent the week end at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adams of Bigler.

A number of our people attended the Halloween celebration and parade at Philipsburg Tuesday evening.

About thirty members and friends of Mrs. Varner's class of girls of the M. L. Sunday school held a Halloween party at the home of Arlene Wheeling on Tuesday evening. They had a delightful time and greatly enjoyed the delicious refreshments served at the close of a perfect evening.

Mrs. Hazel Dayton of Tyrone is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Buff of Railroad street.

Mrs. Reed Barker and N. G. Stewart were called to Tyrone on Wednesday on account of the serious illness of their sister, Miss Blanche Stewart.

Mrs. Mary Gagey and daughters have of bees getting ready for that Media and Grace visited relatives in event.

A number of young people held a Halloween party in Swift's Hall on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Varner spent Thursday at Bigler, where she attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Redifer.

Mrs. Aich Devling and Mrs. M. A. Peters were Clearfield visitors on Thursday.

The Philathea Class of the M. E. Sunday school was delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Polkington. This class has a monstrous Christmas bazaar planned for the 8th and 9th of December and are as busy as a

Mrs. James Davis of Krebs visited here on Thursday.

The pouring of concrete on the new road is progressing slowly. Concrete is now laid within 200 feet of the Charles Barger farm.

Miss Mildred Schiolding of Clearfield attended a Halloween party and spent the night with her school friend Bessie Baker.

Mrs. Alva Kirk, Mrs. Irene Thatcher and daughter Edith of East Waterford, Pa., former parishioners of the Rev. G. B. M. Reidell, have returned to their homes after spending a week as the guests of Mrs. Reidell at the M. E. parsonage.

REPUBLICANS IN GREAT RALLY LAST NIGHT

General Apathy Did Not Put In His Appearance and Many Doubt There Is Such Person

Court House Crowded With Admirers of Republican Ticket and Closest Attention Was Given to Dozen or More Able Political Speakers.

GOOD OLD TIME ENTHUSIASM PREVAILS

We have heard more or less about the country over in the political campaign now reading a close and have been told that voters generally are not interested in this "off year" battle. The observation may be true as to many sections but, judging alone from the attendance and enthusiasm shown at last night's enthusiastic and largely attended meeting at the Court House, it certainly does not apply to Clearfield County Republicans. The Court House was crowded to its utmost capacity, even every foot of the space within the rail being occupied while scores of men were forced to stand along the sides and at the front of the room. It was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering of Republican men and women seen in Clearfield in years and given assurance, if a miracle was necessary, at this time that the Republican voters of this county are alive to the issues confronting the people of Pennsylvania at this highly important election and can be counted upon to roll up the usual handsome majority for the entire Republican ticket on Tuesday next.

A. M. L. Veright, Esq., called the meeting to order at 8:10 and after telling the assemblage that he believed the general public should take politics seriously to heart as the problems to be solved in Pennsylvania required the best thought of the business man, the farmer and the wage earner, he presented the name of R. H. Sommerville for chairman of the meeting styling him an upright, clean living business man whose integrity is beyond question. Mr. Sommerville was unanimously chosen, his appearance on the rostrum being greeted with a burst of applause.

The following Vice Presidents were then named and invited to take seats within the enclosure in front of the Judge's bench: Dr. W. C. Brown, of Burnside; W. H. Orner, Sandy twp.; J. J. Hughes, DuBois; James Mitchell, Sr., Clearfield; Charles G. Gill, Osgood; Mrs. J. M. Cornely, Madera; Charles S. Strong, Ansonville; Mrs. H. H. Sweeney, Houtzdale; Thomas Kenwick, Chester Hill; G. A. Johnson, DuBois; William Brighten, DuBois twp. and Mrs. F. H. McCully, Osgood.

In assuming the chair Mr. Sommerville expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him and stated that as there was a long list of speakers he would confine his remarks to a simple introduction of each speaker.

He then called upon Mrs. Edith Elliot Smith, of Pennsdale, Pa., who said that she was not only a real dirt farmer but a fruit grower of some magnitude as well. She paid splendid tribute to Gifford Pinchot, whom she styled the most approachable of men, with a warm heart and the well-faith of his fellow man at heart, saying it was a fortunate thing to have such a ticket as the Republican party presented to the people of Pennsylvania at this election. She paid some attention to the arduous and urged her hearers to vote the ticket straight.

Hon. Emerson Collins, Williamsport's brilliant orator, was the next speaker, and despite the fact that he left a sick bed to come to Clearfield to attend this meeting Mr. Collins gave an especially impressive thirty minute address, in which he spoke of the intimate relationship between all Clearfield and Williamsport people in the early day when "the sawlog was king" in the West Branch Valley.

He paid tribute to the late Hon. Thomas H. Murray and James B. Graham, a former Clearfielder now one of Williamsport's leading business men, and to the late Col. E. A. Irvin of Currensville.

Mr. Collins in the course of his remarks said this was no "off year" election, it was too important for that, and all should be interested and come out to the polls as the question to be solved at this time meant too much for any mistake to be made. That Gifford Pinchot, winner of the greatest primary ever held in Pennsylvania, would have been elected after that primary instead of engaging in the most farflung campaign ever undertaken in the State. When in charge of the affairs of Pennsylvania the business of government would be conducted open and above board, wrong in public places would be exposed and righted beyond question and the undoubted election of a friendly legislature assured the carrying out of his policies. The speaker said there was no division and no factions among the Republicans of Pennsylvania, but all stood squarely behind Gifford Pinchot and the admirably ticket which he heads. Why bother with McSparran? Pennsylvania is a Republican State, and its affairs must be administered by Republicans and the policies of the party of Lincoln were safe in the hands of the close personal friend of the great Roosevelt.

Mr. Collins paid the strongest of compliments to Senatorial candidates Pepper and Reed, whom he styled worthy successors to Knox and Penrose. He said the election of a Republican Senate was assured, but he was not so sure about the National House of Representatives and it behooved all believers in Republican principles to rally to the support of Hon. W. I. Spooner for Congress as he would be needed at Washington by President Harding to assist in carrying out the constructive policies of the administration. He spoke of Mr. Spooner's commanding fitness and said he would grace the position and bring honor and credit to this district and the State. He possessed the gift of presentation, had been faithful to every trust and would take first rank in the House.

He also urged the election of Jones and Miller for the legislature saying Governor Pinchot would need them at Harrisburg. He paid particular attention to the State Senate and pointed out to his audience the grave necessity for the election of Hon. Harry B. Scott of Philipsburg from this district. He said the Senate was composed of but 50 votes and while it required 26 of those votes to pass a law, 25 would defeat one. He styled Scott as a successful business man, who knows the people of his district is thoroughly acquainted with their needs, open-minded and generous and would prove to be a leader in the Senate. This was no time for division or dissension as the army of the enemy is at the gate and every Republican in the district should vote for Scott as his party needed him at Harrisburg the coming four years.

Reverting to National issues in his closing Mr. Collins said the people found the job of running this country was a job entirely too big for the Democratic party to handle and was the intimate relationship between all the Republicans could handle, but Clearfield and Williamsport people in their could successfully steer the ship of State from the troubled sea, in which the Democrats left it to the safe harbor of prosperity as was already evidenced by the modicum of achievement of the Harding administration during the eighteen months of its existence. Mr. Collins closed his remarks by again urging the election of the entire Republican ticket.

A. H. Woodward, Esq., was the next speaker. He said the Republican party was called upon to answer for the commission given it by the people two years ago and it responds cheerfully and confidently because of the great achievements of the Harding administration. Never was there a more colossal change than that of two years ago when the people rose almost unanimously to put out the Democratic party and to put in the Republican party. This country had to have one Democratic administration every generation lest the people would forget how incompetent they were in governmental administration. He said when Woodrow Wilson took charge of affairs the national debt totaled one billion dollars at 3 1/2 per cent interest; when he was unceremoniously fired by the people at the polls the national debt had reached the enormous total of twenty-three billions and we were paying 8 per cent interest, the interest charges alone being half a billion more than the total of the debt when Wilson took charge. One half of this great debt was due to waste, extravagance and general incompetency which was demonstrated by the fact that the War Department which spent four billions on guns and ammunition, etc., had really provided but 72 cannon and 20,000 shells by the end of the war, but had purchased more branding irons than they had mules to brand; they spent two billions on a nitrate plant and never produced a pound of nitrate; twenty millions on coke ovens and never produced any coke; two billions were spent on airplanes with many an airplane to show for it; thirty-seven millions for concrete ships and the ships wouldn't float; large sums for wooden ships now rotting at their wharves, while "on-law McAdoo's" administration of the railroads cost the people one and three quarters billions, with seven billions more to pay. President Harding promised to take the country back to "normalcy, or normal life. Strictest economy is necessary to bring about that condition, and it is coming, as his administration in eighteen months has reduced taxes $640,000,000 and while in 1920 the cost of government was seven and one-half billions in 1921 it was but five and one half billions and this year it would not total more than three billions. The army and navy had been reduced, the civil employees outside of Washington cut down 320,000 while 37,000 deserving Democrats in Washington had departed for the land of "cinnamon reed and sandy bottom."

Mr. Woodward closed by saying there was no reason for any Republican voter to turn away now. Stand by the party and President Harding until his program is complete.

John C. Arnold, Esq., followed Mr. Woodward and devoted a few minutes to McSparran and his attack on the administration of the State Department of education, or "Finganism" as the Democratic candidate styles it. He showed how State Superintendent Dr. Thomas E. Finegan had lifted the State educationally from the position of 21st among the States to a place near the head of the list and closed by reading the following tribute to Dr. Finegan's accomplishments from Jane O. Leonard, the grand old woman of the Indiana State Normal who at this election is the Democratic candidate for assembly in her district. The letter was written by the editor of the Indiana Gazette, who had misquoted the noted woman

Crime Wave Makes Detective Necessary

MRS. ROSIER GOES FREE FIRST BALLOT OF JURYMEN DECIDE

Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Catherine Rosier today was acquitted by the jury which tried her for killing Miss Mildred Geraldine Reckitt, her husband's stenographer and shortly afterwards was free of the indictment on the charge of killing her husband at the same time.

As the foreman pronounced the words "not guilty" the 22 year old defendant uttered a piercing shriek and fainted. She was carried from the court room by her chief counsel, John Scott, and a court officer, but was quickly revived. This was the 15th day of the trial.

Tremendous applause swept the crowded room when the verdict was announced and the cheer prevailed.

Later Mr. Scott made a motion to release the prisoner pending the action of the district attorney in the second indictment, that of causing the death of her husband.

"If she was adjudged insane at the time of the killing of Miss Reckitt," the district attorney told the court, "she was insane at the time of killing her husband." That is right said the court. Then he submitted to the jury still sitting in the jury box, instructions to find Mrs. Rosier not guilty. This was done immediately.

The case went to the jury this afternoon and the jurors were out one hour and forty-five minutes.

Jurymen said that while there was some discussion before the verdict was taken, there virtually was an agreement from the first and only one ballot was necessary.

BURGLARY BUSINESS SHOWS BIG SLUMP IN CITY OF CHICAGO

Chicago, No. 4. (United Press).—The burglar business in Chicago has slumped and the most notorious of the city's underworld characters have either quit the game or are vacationing in other climes, according to the report of the Chicago Crime Commission.

Robbery has decreased 48 per cent. during the last three months and the "hold-up" game is less popular by more than 30 per cent., statistics show.

"The hold-up game has lost its attractions for the best crooks," Henry Barrett Chamberlain, director of the commission, declared. "The enlarged police force aided by active cooperation from the State's Attorney office is responsible."

"The fact that the burglar business has slumped means that the law has got them worried."

Crime in Chicago is an organized business, carried on by trained and efficient professionals, the report stated. "Help wanted" signs have figuratively been placed in "employment dives of the underworld" by gang leaders, who are seeking recruits to take the places of the criminals who have quit.

Another indication that the "hold-up" man has lost his boldness was seen in the statement that there were fewer killings by this type of criminal in recent months than in any similar period in police annals.

Murders, however, have increased. Six policemen were killed during the last year in the performance of their duty. Most of the murders were committed either in roadhouses or along suburban highways.

A. W. LEE, SR. IN HOSPITAL

A. W. Lee, Sr., was removed from his Second Street home to the Clearfield hospital last evening for medical treatment, he having been ill for several days.

Contagious Diseases Increase During The Last Week Locally

Secretary Caulfield's report as to the local health conditions shows there was a total of 14 cases of communicable diseases reported to the Board of Health during the past week. Of these 4 were diphtheria and 5 scarlet fever. During the same time quarantine was lifted on 8 cases, leaving 27 cases under quarantine in the town. They are located as follows:

First Ward—Scarlet fever, 3.
Second Ward—Scarlet fever, and diphtheria, 2. scarlet fever, 5, diphtheria, 2.
Third Ward—Diphtheria, 9, whooping cough, 3, scarlet fever, 1.
Fourth Ward—Scarlet fever, 2.

GRANGERS HOLD A GREAT SESSION AT DUBOIS, PA.

DuBois, Pa., Nov. 4.—One of the most successful quarterly sessions of the Clearfield County Farmers Grange took place yesterday morning, afternoon and evening at the Whitehead building, on West Washington avenue, when a large number of grangers from this county, as well as a number of visitors from granges in Elk and Jefferson county were present.

The morning session was opened by Master Maurice Bush, of Kylertown and the fifth degree opening ceremonies. W. C. Pentz, Esq., of this city, on behalf of Mayor A. J. Haag, made the address of welcome, and Mrs. Neil Meredith, a lecturer from Elk County Grange, responded for the out of town guests.

The balance of the morning session was given over to the reports of the various committees of the fire, insurance company and from the various county granges represented. Mrs. Luella Wingert and F. Hudson Lee made splendid addresses in the evening numbers of the morning program and one of the big events of the day then took place. A beautiful basket dinner was served at noon in the spacious dining room and everybody present had a delightful meal.

Following the dinner, the afternoon session was opened with music followed by a monologue by Miss Grace Harman, of Luthersburg, and a member of last year's DuBois High School graduating class. Professor Ira Scheid of the Luthersburg high school gave a very interesting address on "Fertilizing Grangers' Minds," and it was appreciated greatly by the grangers.

One of the best addresses of the day by Major I. McCright, of this city, was made during the afternoon with the subject, "How Can the Farmer Better Present Day Market Conditions," and was preceded by instrumental music by Mrs. Ira Carrier.

Miss Anna A. MacDonald of the Library Extension Bureau of Harrisburg, spoke upon "The County Library," and was followed by Miss Irene Crandle, who went further into detail on the same question. Both addresses were greatly appreciated by the grangers.

Memorial services in honor of M. J. Owens, who died late in August, were conducted by State Deputy George B. Wachob, assisted by Hon. Peter Gearhart, of Clearfield. "How Was Your Potato Crop and How Was It Raised," was ably given by W. P. Wingert while an excellent recitation was given by John London.

Following this excellent program, the general business of the session was had, and the meeting, place for (Continued On Page Two.)

MULTIPLICITY OF UNINVESTIGATED UNEXPLAINED AND MYSTERIOUS CRIME CAUSES DISTRICT ATTORNEY TO ACT

Forced by the exigencies of the present conditions and the situation in Clearfield county, the county authorities have found it necessary to again appoint a county detective to look after violations of the law in this county. The law provides that where the necessity for a County Detective exists the District Attorney may present the name of a competent, resourceful person for that position, whereupon it is incumbent upon the Judge of the County to appoint such person as County Detective at a salary to be agreed upon by and among the different County officials in charge of the disbursement of county funds.

The placing of the Sheriff of the County on salary has increased the office duties of that officer without making adequate provision for outside or field work, which has placed a largely increased burden on the District Attorney's office and the appointment of a County Detective became an absolute necessity.

The new officer, who assumed his duties November 1st, is M. Meade Snyder, of Five Points, Chest townships. Mr. Snyder is a well known and highly respected resident of the upper end of the county and possesses the requisite qualifications for the making of a successful officer. His salary is fixed at $1440 and expenses.

County Detective Snyder will have charge of the enforcement of the State and National Prohibition laws in Clearfield county, as well as all criminal investigations coming within the scope of the District Attorney's office and his appointment will be highly satisfactory to all law-abiding citizens.

PHILIPSBURG MAN SERIOUSLY HURT IN GUNNING ACCIDENT

Philipsburg, Nov. 3.—While out hunting Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 1st, Frank Egan of North Sixth street, Philipsburg, was painfully and rather seriously injured when a load of shot from the gun in the hands of his companion, James Rose, of Point Lookout, struck him.

Egan, Rose and another hunter were out near Glass City, in Rush township. They had a rabbit which one of them had captured and were about to liberate it and let the dog chase it. Egan, bending over, released the bunny. Rose, standing near, evidently was afraid it was going to get away from the dogs, for he discharged his gun when the game was only five or six feet away, it is said. The shot struck Egan, who was still in a stooping position, on the right side of the head, above the ear. He was rendered unconscious for a short time, but later was able to walk to one of the home at Glass City.

Dr. W. R. Henton was summoned and removed the lead bullets which had lodged in the flesh. The injured man is now getting along nicely at his home.

Grunners cannot be too careful in the handling of their firearms. This should be kept constantly in mind, not alone for their own welfare and those who are hunting with them, but as a protection to others in the woods or who may be on the highways some times close at hand. No grunner should shoot in any direction until he is quite certain there is no human being between him or in line with the object he shoots at.

The regular meeting of the Alpha Bible Class was held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Ammerman, West Sixth avenue, last evening. After the business meeting lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. Thirty members were present including the visitors.

V. E. Stine received word Thursday from Greene Castle, Franklin county, of the death of his sister, Mrs. Annie Campbell. Mr. Stine left on the 1:20 train for Green Castle to attend the funeral which will be held Monday forenoon at ten o'clock.

FERNWOOD MAN IS KILLED BY DYNAMITE IN MINE EXPLOSION

Philipsburg, Nov. 2.—Charles Farber, aged about 53 years, residing at Fernwood and employed at Mount Vernon No. 10 mine as an operator of the Richmond Coal Company at Fernwood, was horribly injured by an explosion of dynamite Thursday afternoon, Nov. 2nd.

The dying man was brought to the Cottage State hospital about 5 o'clock and expired three hours later. Both eyes had been blown out, and he received other frightful injuries.

A brother of the deceased, John Farber, of Johnstown, a superintendent of mining operations at Winber for the Berwin-White Coal Mining Company, was wired shortly after the accident. He came on to Philipsburg this morning, had Undertaker John F. Enoch prepare the remains for shipment to Johnstown.

Besides the brother referred to above the explosion victim is survived by a half sister, and a half brother, a wife from whom he had been separated, and three children.

TRAINED HIS DOG TOO SOON

It is illegal in Pennsylvania to train your dogs before September 1st of each year, and if the owner of a dog allows him to pursue game before that time or carries a gun with him while training his dog during the season for training he is liable to fine Joe Toney, who was working with a work train crew of the River Line, learned this much law Thursday to his sorrow. State Game Protector W. J. Davis had Toney arrested for violating the game laws in this regard and it cost him $52.50 before Squire Chorpennig.

Paul Woomer, of Philipsburg, neglected the formality of securing a hunter's license before coming over into Clearfield county to hunt on opening day. Game Warden Davis ran across Woomer sans his license up in the Curry Run country and assessed him $25 for hunting without a license.

W. L. Dethloff has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg.

educator. It follows:

Editor, Gazette, Sir:—

In your issue of September 23rd, your correspondent states the following:

"For the greatest part of her life, Miss Leonard has been actively identified with educational matters. It was interesting, therefore, to find that she was thoroughly in accord with McSparran's attitude toward the department of public instruction."

I have spent 64 years in teaching in Pennsylvania's schools. I am in favor of the present state program in education. I stand squarely on the educational plank of the Democratic platform. In my humble judgment, Dr. Finegan has done more to advance education in the past three years than has been accomplished in the preceding ten years.

This note of explanation is sent because I regard education as of fundamental importance in the life and development of the Commonwealth.

Sincerely yours,

JANE E. LEONARD

If Miss Leonard approves the program and stands on the Democratic platform where must McSparran stand.

Ward Fleming, Esq. of Philipsburg, was the next speaker and made a plea for wholehearted support for his friend and neighbor Harry B. Scott for Senator because he was so eminently fitted for the position and would be a real asset to this district.

He urged the election of the entire ticket.

Chairman Sommerville then brought the meeting to a close with a few brief talk in which he solicited the votes of his neighbors and assured them he would represent all the people of the district if sent to Washington. He urged the voters to support the entire Republican ticket.

Hon. Harry B. Scott was next introduced by Chairman Sommerville, who referred to him as "a neighbor of mine, whom I am proud to call my friend."

Mr. Scott said he would appreciate the support of Clearfield county Republicans and if sent to Harrisburg would give Governor Pinchot and his policies 100 per cent. support.

Said he believed in law enforcement and would be earnest in his endeavors to further the interests of this district and all its people.

G. A. Stewart was the next speaker and after paying glowing tribute to Harry B. Scott he made a special appeal to the friends who supported him at the Republican primaries, for his successful opponent Charles B. Jones, of Ramey, stating he was the character of man this district needed in the legislature.

Hon. Charles B. Jones of Ramey, was then introduced and after pledging himself to support Pinchot and his policies at all times asked for the support of the people, promising to do everything in his power for their interests while at Harrisburg.

Hon. Frank G. Harris, of Clearfield was then called upon and briefly responded, stating that he expected to cast his fifth Republican ballot at next Tuesday's election.

He urged the election of the entire ticket.

Chairman Sommerville then brought the meeting to a close with a few remarks in which he spoke of the high character of the men making up the Republican ticket and urged his hearers to "vote it straight."

The meeting was one of the most interesting and most successful in recent years and was attended by Republican workers from almost every precinct in the county all of whom returned to their homes chock full of enthusiasm and with a renewed purpose to get out the vote on election day and to see that the ticket was voted straight from Governor to Legislature.

GRANGERS HOLD

the January meeting was given to Curwensville. The library committee, headed by W. C. Pentz of this city, reported progress on the circulating library and action will be taken by the officers.

Robert McDougall, the Elk County Agent, was present yesterday afternoon and made a short address which was very helpful to the grangers and other interested listeners.

Following an excellent supper at 6 o'clock the evening session was opened with music and by an address by W. C. Pentz, on "What America Needs Today." There were a number of musical selections last night, and the feature of the session was the conferring of the Fifth Degree by the Jefferson County Pomona Grange degree team. A play "Laughter and Song" was very carefully produced by members of the Salem Grange, while members of that grange also gave several musical numbers. Professor E. P. Zech played a violin solo that was immensely enjoyed.

The session came to a close late last evening, and a number of grangers who were present from this county returned home by automobile.

WE DEMAND PROOF

While driving to Snow Shoe Wednesday about noon, right close to the lumber mill camps on the Snow Shoe mountain, Davis Moore, salesman for Hoffman & Runk, of Philipsburg, spied a big black bear climbing the bank from the road.

It seems that the bank was soft and stony, making it hard climbing for bruin and he kept slipping back onto the road. Mr. Moore said he tried several times to run him down with his Hup roadster, but couldn't quite reach him. He then got out of the car and tried stoning him.

The bear got up the bank about that time, when behold, Mr. Moore saw three other bears just ahead of the lone one. The motorist's one desire was to have the trusty rifle with which he shot at the three bucks last year while in the Green Woods. He surely would have had a great treat for the Philipsburg people, by showing them four of the nicest and largest bears that ever crossed the Snow Shoe mountains.

Davis Moore declares this is a true bear story.

GONE ARE THE DAYS OF RED FLANNELS, OFF THE MARKET

New York, Nov. 4. (United Press.)—What has happened to the good, old-fashioned ticked muslins and red flannels? They aren't even the best sellers any more on New York's East Side—in fact the stores there don't carry them.

Today's tenement flappers are now the greatest little buyers of gloves silk and crepe de chine lingerie in the world.

If there are any establishments on the main East Side streets dealing in old-fashioned brands, they are careful to keep their wares under cover. To attempt to purchase more cotton garments is an insult to the salesman. He will talk bargains, but his bargains are in silks.

Side by side with old brass shops, kosher markets and second hand dealers are lines upon lines of those whose specialties are "ladies furnishings." Their shelves are filled with the latest in "step-ins" and "slub-downs" in delicate hues and pastel tinted georgette negligees that belie the popular idea that she who dwells in a sixth floor back tenement necessarily wears capote wrap.

"It doesn't take long for these foreign-born girls to get on to American ways of dressing. They want the stuff here that other people buy on Fifth Avenue and we have to keep it in stock for them," remarked an oldtimer.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

CHEER UP, YOU OLD FELLOWS!

Edward Bok's remarks about Sesquicentennial directors over 50 years of age recall the famous controversy aroused a few years ago by the alleged statement of Dr. Osler that a man who passed his sixtieth year was a fit subject for chloroform.

Dr. Osler always claimed he had been misquoted and never seriously meant what he did say, but the world at large professed to take a serious view of the matter, and the question of the duration of man's mental virility became a subject of wide discussion.

Perhaps the most exhaustive article on the subject was "The Age of Mental Virility," by W. A. Newmar Dorland, printed in 1908, in which the writer gave a list of 400 of the world's greatest thinkers and workers in modern times.

He states that his research was brought about by a conversation with Dr. Harris A. Slocum, of Philadelphia over the tendency to relegate middle-aged and older men to the oblivion of immemorial desuetude to give the more progressive and aggressive young men a clear track in the rush to the front.

In selecting his famous "400," he grouped them as workers and thinkers. Among the latter he placed the great warriors and great inventors.

The average initial age of the 400 records was 24 years. The workers began at 22, the thinkers at 26. The average duration of mental process was 40 years; for the workers, 41 years; for the thinkers, 39. The longest term of duration was shown to be by inventors, 49 years.

Seventy-eight per cent. closed their life work between 50 and 80 years, and 85 per cent. after the 50th year. Continuing, Dr. Dorland says: "The sixth decade of life has been the most prolific in human achievement, and well may be designated the age of masterwork. In action alone its accomplishments have revolutionized history, and it is most difficult to conceive what would be the present status of the world's affairs had these 10 years of individual life never existed."

Columbus could not then have discovered the American continent, Marlborough could not have won his great victory of Blenheim, Morse's invention of the telegraphic alphabet would have been lost, Richelieu could not have concluded the peace of Westphalia which gave Alsace-Lorraine to France, Caesar could not have corrected the calendar, Cromwell could not have established the Protectorate, Lincoln could not have issued his emancipation proclamation. Loyola could not have founded the Society of Jesus, nor Jefferson established the Democratic party. Wycliff would not have made the first complete English version of the Bible, nor Luther the first complete translation of the Book, Washington would not have become first President of the United States.

In fact, in a long list Dr. Dorland shows how between the ages of 50 and 60 years were accomplished the great achievements of Swedenborg, Lershel, Peel, Canning, Edmund Burke, Warren Hastings, Garibaldi, Dr. Leidy, Buffon, Darwin, Cuvier, Huxley, Herbert Spencer, Hugh Miller, Haint Simon, Galileo, John Will, Ada m Smith, Macaulay, Diderot, Tyndall, Reynolds, Velasquez, da Vinci, Gainsborough, Romney, Titian, Milton, Dante, Corot, Landseer, Dumas, Hugo, Dickens, Scott, Bach, Handel, Hady, Verdi, Wagner, Guizot, Benjamin West, Franklin, Con-

Fine Closed Cars With Fine Car Equipment

Coupe $1445—Sedan $1465 F. O. B. Detroit Tax Extra

It is now very generally conceded that the mechanical foundation of Jewett cars is one of the great engineering triumphs of the year. There could be no more perfect six-cylinder motor. There could be no stronger or more efficient chassis from radiator to rear axle.

But inspect the Sedan and Coupe and you will make another startling discovery. Despite the extremely low prices, you will find yourself viewing the finest of body work, upholstery and general appointments. Then, and then only, you will appreciate that these are fine cars that set an entirely new standard of value. Here there is no compromise.

Study the list of Jewett features at the right. They tell a story of refinement that has never been equalled in the popular priced field.

Jewett Closed Car Features

Body and interior fabrics that neither fade nor soil easily.
Extra broad cushions over deep cushion springs.
Ample leg room for all passengers.
Full steel chassis.
Broad plate glass windows which slide in felt lined channels—rattle and rain-proof. Easy operating window lifts.

Perhaps you are not interested in politics; many men and women are not. That is unfortunate. The human race usually lets things go until somebody is hurt then raises a howl. Next to indifference there is the foolish idea of experimenting under the belief that our daily tasks and pleasures will not be affected by whoever may be in the different offices. Youngstown, Ohio, elected a mayor as a joke. Few citizens have appreciated the joke since it was perpetrated.

Tuesday we elect two U. S. Senators; probably we of this state will never vote for two U. S. Senators at the same election again. In Colonel Frederick B. Kerr, Clearfield has a candidate for this next to highest elective office in the republic, and no finer type of citizen could be found in all the country. He is the choice of the Democratic party and stands high above the state leaders. Were Mr. Kerr not aligned politically with the League of Nations advocates, the low tariff party and the McSparran state ticket, his would be a practically unanimous vote in this county. In the words of a contemporary, "Principles, not men," are going to be considered and unfortunately Mr. Kerr must suffer for his political belief in the League, the tariff and his company on the state ticket. For Congress this city has two candidates, Hon. Wm. I. Swoope and Hon. J. Frank Snyder, both sterling men, and again thoughtful voters will consider "Principles, not men." Our national administration is Republican, led by President Harding and, unless there be harmony between the Chief Executive and Congress, there cannot be progress. The election of Mr. Swoope will mean the placing of a man in Congress who will carry out the full program of the Republican party, which will result in a continuance of such desirable conditions of industry as is now being enjoyed by all who wish to work. It will mean the keeping out of foreign leagues and entanglements, a further reduction of governmental expenses, a stone wall against the incoming of foreign sweat shop manufactured articles which would stop our own mills and factories. Think well, voters, before giving that purely sentimental, complimentary or friendship vote. Our federal government seems a stranger to us but our national prosperity is dependent upon it.

When we come to the state government by reason of our close proximity to Harrisburg we feel more at home. There was a great deal of dissatisfaction with the old Republican party in Pennsylvania. That dissatisfaction crystallized in a great popular movement behind a more popular man, Gifford Pinchot, who is now the undisputed leader and the dictator of the aims, purposes and policies of the Republican party. He carries the mandate from the majority of Republicans and all the old leaders have rallied to his standard. You know his platform. He has shouted it from the house tops. He has stood back of it through thick and thin, enlisting and commanding strength and support by his fearless acknowledgement of the ills of his own party. But Gifford Pinchot must have more than votes, he must have more than a certificate of have a State Senate and a State Assembly to put into law his recommendations. Recently he visited Clearfield and from the steps of the Court House asked the voters to give him Harry H. Scott in the Senate and Chas. B. Jones, the Assembly from the first district and D. D. Miller from the second district. To send Mr. Pinchot to Harrisburg without a working crew would rot this state back four years. It is no secret that the Democratic candidates opposing Mr. Scott, Mr. Jones and Mr. Miller are likewise opposing Mr. Pinchot and would continue to do so if elected. We cannot close this article without paying our respects to our townsman, W. I. Betts, as a fine type of citizen, generous hearted, clean living, a patriot of the highest order but again, principles, not men, must be considered. In Pinchot, Scott, Jones and Miller this community will have a quartette from which there will come no discord.

(EDITORIAL)
TESTIMONIALS TO SWOOPE FROM "THE CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN"

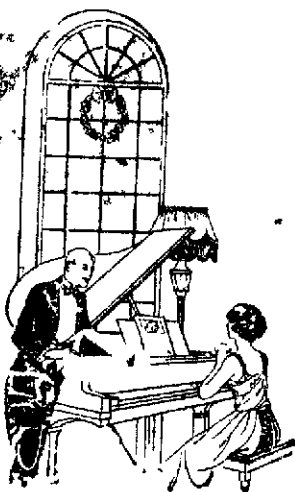

In answer to the many disagreeable things which "The Clearfield Republican" has been saying about William I. Swoope during the present campaign, we herewith quote some of the commendatory articles which Shorty wrote when he was not biased by political prejudice. In the issue of "The Clearfield Republican" for March 15, 1915, appeared the following:

"W. I. Swoope, former District Attorney, is after one of the deputyships under Attorney General Francis Shunk Brown at Harrisburg. While Bill and the Republican have never been very close to complete harmonious relations politically, we take pleasure in recommending him for the job. He is a good lawyer, is industrious, and will perform the duties of any position he may be called to fill with fidelity and with credit. He has all kinds of A-1 endorsements and does not need anything from us. But this is thrown in for what it is worth, and without any solicitation whatever, direct or indirect."

And when Mr. Swoope was appointed Deputy Attorney General by Governor Sproul in January, 1919, the appointment was very favorably commented on by the press of the State. But no paper was more laudatory in its notice than "The Clearfield Republican." It commended Mr. Swoope as a man and as a lawyer, and prophesied that he would make an excellent official.

These pleasant things were said by Mr. Short about Mr. Swoope, when Mr. Short was not conducting a Democratic campaign.

OTHELLO RANGE

...IS...

The Perfect Range

The OTHELLO is the perfect range, because every part and principle is the result of test and elimination.

But aside from the mechanical principles, did you ever stop to consider the features that govern a woman, in making her choice of a Range? They are refined simplicity, ease of operation, and durability—good service.

The OTHELLO in a tasteful shade of Enamel, selected with reference to other Kitchen furnishings, may be quite as pleasing to the eye as the Piano in the Parlor. It is clean—attractive—efficient. Its possession assures the contented feeling, which is the accompaniment of perfect work.

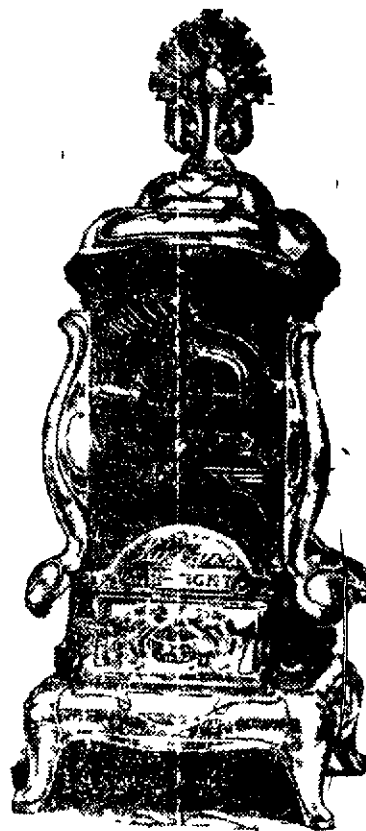

The OTHELLO is everywhere considered the standard.

There are over 300,000 housekeepers using the OTHELLO Range today. When the great number of rival cooking Ranges is considered—there certainly must be a reason.

The advent of Porcelain Enamel, as applied to cooking apparatus, has rescued the lowly range from its dark corner of the Kitchen to a "place in the Sun."

SUNSHINE AIR-TIGHT DOUBLE HEATER

This is an entirely new production, original in design and embodying all of the good points of the most successful Air-Tights previously put upon the market. Already it is receiving the most favorable comments, as to its splendid appearance, and completeness in every respect. Immediately upon its introduction, a voluntary letter of commendation was received from one of the largest handlers of Air-Tight stoves, in Pennsylvania. This has been followed by others, of a similar character, quite unsolicited by us. So that we are convinced, we have in this stove, the very best Air-Tight, anywhere to be found.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 5

JESUS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN

LESSON TEXT—Luke 4:31-41; 5:12-26.

GOLDEN TEXT—Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sickness.—Matt. 8:17.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 9:35; Mark 1:21-45.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How a Sick Man was Brought to Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Healing the Paralytic.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Power to Forgive Sin.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus' Ministry to Human Need.

Since the topic sets forth Jesus as the Great Physician, it will be better for adult classes, especially, to take the larger text chosen by the committee and note the several outstanding cases of His healing. For some classes it will be better to study the one case of healing, namely, the healing of the paralytic.

I. Jesus Healing a Demoniac (4:31-37).

While engaged in teaching in the synagogue He was interrupted by a man who had an unclean spirit. Jesus rebuked the demon and compelled him to come out of the man. This healing shows Jesus not only gracious, but powerful to set free the whole brood of diabolical passions, such as lust, envy, anger and jealousy which rule men.

II. Jesus Heals a Woman of a Great Fever (vv. 38-43).

Peter's mother-in-law was prostrate with a great fever. They of Peter's household besought Jesus for her. Jesus rebuked the fever and it left her so that she immediately rose and ministered unto them. No earthly physician had ever been known to heal in that way. Divine healing is immediate and complete. We should distinguish between divine healing and faith healing. Faith healing is the result of the action of the mind upon the body and is measured by the degree of the faith, while divine healing is the action of the power of God upon the diseased one, and is always complete and immediate, because it is measured by the power of the Healer, God. His fame spread abroad and many kinds of divers diseases were brought unto Him and He healed them all, even casting out demons and forbidding them to testify of Him.

III. Jesus Heals a Leprosy (5:12-16).

Leprosy was a most loathsome and terrible disease. Because of its foulness one afflicted therewith was an outcast. The disease was incurable by man, therefore the leper was regarded as hopeless and dead. In response to the leper's earnest request Jesus touched him and bade the leprosy to depart, and immediately he was healed and cleansed. Leprosy is a type of sin. Jesus has power to heal and cleanse and restore.

IV. Jesus Heals a Paralytic (5:17-26).

1. Watched by the Pharisees and Doctors (v. 17). Jesus' fame spread abroad, and this only incited jealousy on the part of these men.

2. The Paralytic Brought (vv. 18, 19). This is a fine lesson in Christian service. They could not heal the man, but could bring him to Jesus, who could heal and restore. They had faith in Jesus to heal him. No effort which is required to bring a sinner to Jesus should be regarded as too great.

3. The Man's Sins Forgiven (v. 20). Jesus looked back of the palsy to its cause—sin. All disease and death is the result of sin. Jesus saw the faith of those not only who brought him, but of the man himself.

4. The Purpose of Miracles (vv. 21, 22). The Pharisees accused Christ of blasphemy when He declared the man's sins forgiven. Jesus showed them that back of the beneficent deed to the man was the demonstration of His power. The main purpose in the working of miracles is the authentication of the divine mission of the one performing them. The working of the miracle was to demonstrate His authority to atone for sin and to grant forgiveness. While the divine power and authority are thus shown, the wisdom and love of God are shown in that in all cases the supernatural work is for the good of the individual. A true miracle is never spectacular. It is not merely a demonstration of power, but the working of power for beneficent ends, the good of some one in need.

5. Relative Value of Physical Ills and Moral and Spiritual Misdeeds (v. 23). Physical ills are less serious than the sins which cause them. In dealing with them we should follow the example of Christ and first deal with the cause.

Self-Love.

Self-love is a cup without any bottom; you might pour all the great lakes into it and never fill it up.—O. W. Holmes.

A Thought for Today.

Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? To his own master he standeth or falleth.—Romans 14:4.

The Lord Knoweth.

The Lord knoweth our frame and remembereth that we are dust.—Ps. 103:14.

When He's Telling It.

When He's telling it, the fellow who's telling it all would forget a little of it.—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

7:30 P. M. Wednesday, prayer, song and Bible study. Let everyone bring a Bible.

The Woman's Missionary Society requests all the members of the church and congregation to bring to the church Sunday morning or evening (tell the pastor if you live far from the church and your bundle will be called for) the following: Warm garments of every description; suits and overcoats; sweaters of all sizes; shawls and mufflers; skirts and warm dresses; stockings and socks of all sizes; underwear of all sizes; unbleached cotton cloth with needles and thread and buttons, for the making of underwear clothing in Russia. Do not forget the children. These things must leave here the first of the week as the ship leaves New York the last of this month for Russia. So rush in your gifts for Russia.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN

A big day at St. John's Lutheran church tomorrow.

Sunday Nov. 5th has been designated as "Laura E. Gilliland Day" by the local congregation in honor of one of their members who has dedicated her life to the cause of missions. Sister Laura E. Gilliland has labored for seven years in Africa seeking to carry out the Master's command when He said—"Go ye." The object of this day is twofold—to keep before our people the great cause of missions and to emphasize the challenge that this noble woman by her consecrated life presents to all our young people, in the hope that others may give their lives to this great cause.

Any congregation counts it a privilege and an honor to have a returned missionary bring a personal message direct from the field. St. John's will have an exceptional privilege tomorrow of having two returned missionaries with them at all the services. Miss Mabel Dyserger who has also been laboring in our African field will be present and speak at the morning service. Sister Laura will speak at the evening service. A feast of good things awaits all who will come.

The greatest thing St. John's has ever undertaken is the contemplated nursery to be built on our African field to be known as "The Laura E. Gilliland Nursery." Here the children will be gathered and given Christian instruction and training. Here they will grow up under a Christian influence that will equip them for the great service they will be able to render among their own people as Christian workers. Who can estimate the value of such a building? Every dollar put into this building is a dollar loaned to the Lord at a very high rate of interest. Not in dollars and cents but in souls that are above price. What you do for one of His, you do for Him. Our first offering for this building will be lifted on Sunday. Every one is asked to make an investment. It is no gamble. Rich dividends will be paid if you invest with a prayer and give "as unto the Lord."

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

G. R. Alban, Pastor.

9:45 Sunday school rally. H. S. Hummel, superintendent.

11:00 Public worship. Sermon by the pastor. Subject, "The Light of Heaven in the Soul of Man."

G. B. M. Reidell, Pastor.

Sabbath school 10 a. m. James Baird in charge. This is the Missionary Sabbath. Offering for missions. Preaching services at 11 a. m. Sermon by the pastor. Theme, "Protection." Psalms 91:1 will be the basis of the morning sermon. Friends of the church, also those having no church home are invited to worship in our church at this hour. "The route to a Protection, set forth by David in the 91st Psalm is the only safe route for pilgrims of this day and age. To be under the shadow of the Almighty is the only safety." The evening service at 7 p. m. for the young people. No evening preaching service as the pastor is holding evangelistic services at Dale church.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. E. C. Reeve, Pastor.

9:30 Reedsville chapel. E. L. Peterson, superintendent.

10:30 Morning worship. Sermon, "The Lord Called Me."

11:45 Sabbath school. C. R. Bloom, superintendent.

7:00 Senior and Junior Young Peoples meetings. H. B. Hartwick will speak at the Senior meeting.

7:30 Evening worship. Dr. Reeve will preach the last sermon of the series "My Religion." The subject, "The Fact of Loyalty." A musical program of fifteen minutes beginning at 7:15. Organ numbers: Tannhauser March, Wagner; "Poet and Peasant," Von Suppe; Largo from "New World Symphony," Dvorak. Duet on flute and French horn by Edwin Howard and Thomas Bryan. Anthem for morning, "Forward Be Our Watchword." Anthem for evening, "Prayer," by Dion Kennedy.

Sabbath Day will witness the congregation bringing their self-denial offering for the sufferers in the Smyrna disaster. This calls for the sharing of what we have to save those who are destitute.

Bundles of clothes are being left in the hall of the church at the Pine street entrance to be sent to the suffering people, men, women and children in the Near East. Have you any castoff or outgrown garments which you would like to do a work of mercy send them down to the church this week and they will go at once to clothe the suffering ones who are destitute.

A cordial invitation to all to worship with us.

Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, Minister.

Bible school, J. C. Arnold, Supt., with special Missionary program and offering under direction of H. B. Powell, Jr., 9:30; Epworth League, Mrs. S. Keith Davis, leader, 6:30; meeting of group leaders and personal workers, 3; worship, 10:45; special exposition of selected scripture; at night, 7:30, the first sermon in a series of "The Master's Mighty Messages to Men." He spoke massive truth in challenging messages to men. To classes like Pharisees, Sadducees, scribes, rulers, lawyers he delivered revealing revolutionary truth. To the inquiring, lost, repenting, erring, he brought the right word. For the vain rich, the self-contained, the unbrotherly, the God-defying, great words fell tenderly from his lips. His messages, too wonderful for his day, are too big even for our assuming age. They are the only corrective and redemptive adequate to human conditions and needs.

from Mrs. Enrico

Chicago, Illinois.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a serious trouble. I had tried doctors and all said the same—an operation. At first I only felt the pain on my left side, but later I seemed to feel it on both sides. I am a power sewing-machine operator and have a little girl to support. I work in a tailor shop and that line of work has been very slack this year and I am home part of the time. I do not like to take any chances, so I consulted my friends, and one lady said, 'Take Lydia Pinkham's medicine,' so I did. I have felt better right along and am in goodenough health to go to work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound and Sarsaparilla Wash to all."—Mrs. MAY ENRICO, 459 N. Carpenter St., Chicago, Illinois.

Often the mother is obliged to support her children and good health is necessary. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is just the medicine you can depend upon. It is a medicine for women's ailments and the relief it brought Mrs. Enrico it may bring to you. Keep well by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

SOME GOOBERS

Folks, you'll like 'em. In the first place, they're the finest hand-picked Virginia peanuts that we can buy. We might buy 'culls' and you probably couldn't tell the difference. But we're as particular about the quality of these peanuts—we think more so—than you are and absolutely nothing but the best we can buy is good enough.

Then, our roasting machine is one of the best that has been brought out and it sure can roast peanuts as they should be roasted.

We have learned to roast them to just the right turn and this accounts for the ever increasing circle of folks who buy our peanuts on Saturday nights.

stable, Ribens, Michael Angelo, Aristotle, Plato, Goethe, the great historians Gibbon, Edison, Sterne, Swift, Marshal Turenne, Lamartine, Machiavelli, John Warrnamaker, A. T. Stewart, J. Pierpont Morgan, Andrew Carnegie, A. J. Drexel, Commodore Vanderbilt and other great captains of industry.

Not only have the greatest achievements been accomplished by men over 60 years of age, but many have been accomplished by men over 60, over 70 and even over 80 years of age, and it would probably interest Mr. Bok to know that between the ages of 60 and 70 years Napoleon revolutionized mathematics; Leverrier re-discovered the planetary theories; Blanche and Mother won their greatest battle; Bonaparte his greatest campaign; Cardinal Newman his Apologia; Grote his history of Greece; Hume his history of Latin Christianity; Michelet his history of France; Audobon his natural history; Pasteur his work on hydrophobia; Cervantes his "Don Quixote"; Butler his Hudibras; John Adams was President of the United States; Crispien Prime Minister of Italy; Disraeli and Gladstone Prime Ministers of England; Monroe promulgated the Monroe doctrine; Michael Angelo painted his "Last Judgment," Turner his "Fighting Temeraire," Benjamin West his "Christ Healing the Sick," Bancroft wrote his great history, Hadyn composed his "Creation," and Wagner his "Nibelung Ring."

All these and many others, including our own Daniel Webster and Henry Clay, were strong personalities in the decade from 60 to 70, and any suggestion that they should retire from active work in favor of younger men would have been ridiculed.

In conclusion, since Dr. Dorland made his exhaustive investigation the world has passed through a great war. Suppose all officials and generals over 60 years of age had been retired and younger and less experienced men put in command, the British forces would have been without French, Haig, and its now famous commanders; Lloyd George would not have turned back the Hun; later, Marshals Joffre and Foch would not have turned back the Hun at the Marne; Petain and the other French generals would not have held him at Verdun; Clemenceau would not have been the "Tiger of France"; Diaz would not have routed the Austrians at the Piave; and President Wilson would not have guided the great American nation safely to a victorious termination of the war; nor would the heroes of the Argonne, Belleau Woods and the other fields where they swept all opposition from their path, have been led by the splendid commanders under the direction of perhaps the most popular

American military commander of the twentieth century, John J. Pershing. In the words of Billy McLean, the 80-year-old boxer, no man, if he takes care of himself, is old until he cashes in.

HUNTING ACCIDENTS ARE REPORTED FROM JEFFERSON COUNTY

Seth Haag, of Troutville, is a victim of the first day of hunting season, and is in a critical condition in the Maple Avenue hospital. In fact his condition is such that although the accident took place yesterday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock, it was deemed necessary to postpone an operation until sometime today Haag was hunting when the accident occurred. A single barrel shotgun was discharged about 18 inches from his thigh entering the limb about 6 inches above the knee on the outer side. The injured man was taken to a house and a doctor from DuBois was called. Upon the doctor's arrival and a brief examination made, he saw at once that it was a case for the hospital and phoned back to DuBois for an ambulance. Mr. Haag is suffering considerable from loss of blood, but is suffering mostly from shock. It is hoped his condition will permit an operation today.

Notwithstanding the large number of hunters in the woods of this section, few accidents were reported. The only one in this immediate section occurred near Caledonia, fifteen years old Joseph Lumbard being the victim.

The youth was out the first day, hunting with his father, when a flock of pheasants flew up between them. Both took a shot at the birds and it is presumed that a pellet from the discharge of the father's gun struck a tree or rock and glanced off, hitting the youth in the right eye. The young man was taken to Clearfield hospital, where X-rays were taken to ascertain the extent of injury to the eye.

Near Trade City Noble McCormick received a shot of 38 in his left leg when his companion with whom he was hunting accidentally discharged the contents of his shotgun into the leg. He was taken to the Punxsutawney hospital.

Forbes Gumbert, of Coolspring, accidentally discharged the contents of his own shot gun into his foot on the opening day of the season. The injured man was taken to the Adrian hospital.

Blaine Kinter, of Punxsutawney, received one lone shot just below his left eye, while out hunting with a companion. The companion shot at a bird and a pellet glanced off the limb of a tree, hitting Mr. Kinter.

Two hunters said to be from Pittsburgh, routed out two rabbits, one of which took refuge under a mule that had just brought out a trip from the Noerr mine are Cortez. One of the hunters, banged away at the bunny and a shot penetrated the mule's eye. The hunters agreed to settle.

CLOSING WORDS

Elisha Kent Kane

This is my last appeal before election. It is likely that I shall win. But if you stay at home, I shall be defeated. I have hired no poll workers, no messengers, no organizers. The Prohibition Party, on whose ticket only I stand, has no money to use for my election. Letters which I am receiving from different parts of the district breathe devoted enthusiasm so there may be volunteers urging their neighbors to vote for me. Perhaps you yourself may be one. If so, you may truthfully say that I propose to go to Congress as the choice of the whole people independent of party. In my letter sent into your homes, to forty-five thousand women voters regardless of party, and in my published advertisements, I have set forth my issues. They are not contrary to the doctrines of either Republicans or Democrats; but take up very important matters which both these parties have been neglecting. I have made no other promises, public or private; and on all other issues, such as the tariff, the tariff jangle, I shall keep an open mind and a level head. In my publications I have promised, as to such matters, to try to avoid sudden and disastrous changes and extreme measures which upset business and throw people out of work. I propose to influence Democratic and Republican leaders to get together for permanent moderate measures. Being free from caucus or party rule, I shall have exceptional power.

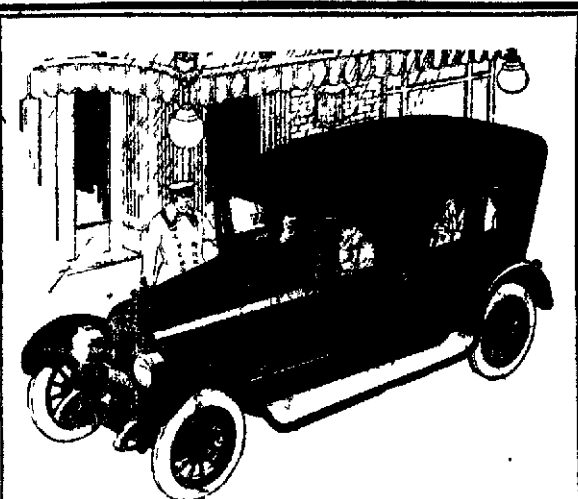

Look out for lies circulated so close to election that I cannot contradict them. Already two Republican dailies, in editorials for Swope, falsely assert that I was Democratic candidate for Congress at large in 1920. Actually, in 1916 I was Prohibition candidate and, as such, tried to get a Democratic endorsement in hopes of defeating any one of the three very wet Republican candidates. A Republican daily alleges that I am an "assistant Democrat" because a several times the Prohibition party, by my influence, has endorsed and elected dry Democrats over wet Republicans. For like reason, it might call me an "assistant Republican." With my influence, the Prohibition party endorsed and elected dry Republican Congressmen Barclay, Patton, Jones (and term), but endorsed and failed to elect to Congress the dry Democrat Tobias. We endorsed and elected the dry Democrat State Treasurer Berry. In the same way I helped to send the dry Democrat Milton to General Assembly and afterwards to State Senate, and the dry Republican Catlin for Assembly for two terms. Catlin was re-nominated by us this year but, as he withdrew, we substituted, and expect to elect, the dry Democrat Max Moore. Personally I voted for the dry Republicans Staley for Congress and Roosevelt for President, and I did my proudest to make the dry Democrat Bryan stand on our ticket for President in 1920. That's the kind of assistant Republican Democrat I am. I ask Democrats and Republicans to send me to Congress to work with the best men of both parties.

My expense account published after election will show that David S. McCalmont, former Prohibition State Chairman, contributed $100, and my wife and I bear all the rest. I shall be under obligations only to you who vote for me. It will show that I spent money on the National, Pennsylvania State, and McKean County Prohibition Committees, on the Prohibition Foundation and Flying Squadron, and paid for newspaper advertising and for getting out my letter and pho-

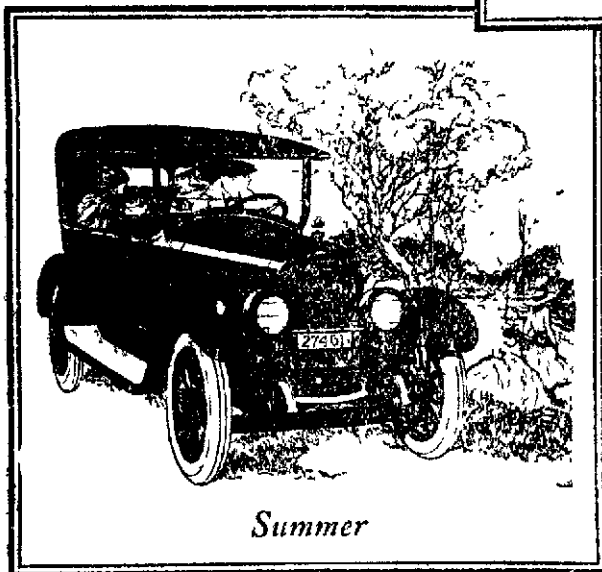

Two Cars in One For the Price of One

Sedan and Touring Car for Only $3350

Here is something new in motordom—a final development of the two-in-one idea. A Marmon sedan in winter, a Marmon touring car in summer. Yet $1,035 less than a standard Marmon sedan and only $165 more than a standard touring car. No wonder motorists everywhere have welcomed this car and are making it a popular seller.

Winter

Summer

In 30 Minutes

Think of it—you can convert this 7-passenger Marmon Phaeton to either sedan or touring car in half an hour. But do not be mistaken—do not confuse this with the installation of winter-sides, old-fashioned, rarely, unsatisfactory.

The New Marmon Phaeton is a distinct type, a final development and refinement of the convertible idea. From the beginning it was designed by Marmon engineers as a combination car—every detail has been worked out to perfection.

This car solves the eternal question: "Shall I buy a sedan or a touring car?" Now you can have both, yet at a modest price. Snug comfort in winter, open airiness in summer.

And "It costs so little to drive a Marmon"

Both in maintenance and operation the Marmon is economical, as every owner will tell you. The Marmon of today is the outcome of 20 years of building fine cars, and Marmon owners everywhere agree that they possess the finest form of transportation at the lowest cost per mile.

A new Marmon achievement in design and construction

Marmon designers are first to perfect a convertible car. For years the demand has been growing. First crude winter sides were employed, bought locally, not always fitting the car. They looked badly, they squeaked, they were not weather-tight.

Sensing the public desires, Marmon designers set about designing a body which, from the chassis up, would be easily convertible, one which would be both beautiful and practical.

It took three years to produce a body like this and not until it was perfected was it offered to the public.

Now it is ready, in fact, hundreds are in service throughout the country and owners are delighted.

Inspect it

Forget all the makeshift winter-side attempts you have ever seen. Be prejudiced against them if you wish.

Then see this new Marmon Enclosed

Phaeton. See how cleverly Marmon designers have combined art and engineering, how they have succeeded in producing a body which in winter is a real sedan, yet which in summer is a real touring car.

Note the way many problems have been solved. For instance, sit in the back seat. As a sedan, you have the vision and comfort of a standard sedan. As a touring car, you have a wider, less obstructed vision than ever, due to the newly developed Panorama Top.

Look at the car from a distance. Note its new low lines, its added grace and beauty, its smart appearance.

And remember that the price for this remarkable convertible car is only $3,350—think of all you get at about the touring car price, and how much you save from the standard sedan price.

Worthy of the chassis

Remember, also, that this Marmon-

designed and Marmon-built body is mounted on the famous Marmon chassis, the most dependable, the most enduring, the most economical chassis ever built.

This is the same chassis which is used with all types of bodies, even for the costly, exclusive custom-built bodies that have given the Marmon such international distinction.

This is the chassis which a nation-wide survey shows to cost so little for maintenance—only $4.35 per month. This is the chassis which has made such wonderful records for dependability and freedom from attention.

Come and see this enclosed Phaeton and prepare to be surprised. It is bound to claim your admiration, as it has thousands of wise motorists everywhere. Bring the family. Let us take you out on a demonstration trip.

CURWENSVILLE

Fred Pilkington, a former Curwensville resident, now of Clearfield, spent several hours in town yesterday.

Mrs. Sarah Ammerman, who was so sorely afflicted and almost lost sight of her eyes for a month, is slowly recovering her usual health, greatly to the gratification of her many friends.

Walter Fullerton has moved his family from north of Filbert Street and is now domiciled in a part of the V. M. Reed dwelling on North Pine street.

Mrs. S. C. Russell left for New City Thursday and will join her sister, Mrs. Dr. Grosse, for a short farewell visit ere the latter sails for her home in France. On her way home Mrs. Russell will stop for a visit with her brother, Chas. E. Patton in Chester county.

William Bennett is reported as being seriously ill at his home in the Naulton section of town.

About half past two o'clock yesterday morning the fire alarm whistle routed the Rescue boys from their warm beds on the jump. The fire was finally located in a house on South Side of upper Anderson Creek bridge and occupied by Cash Clark and family. The firemen entered the building, but found no flame but lots of smoke. After dumping a lot of stuff out the windows the smouldering fire was finally conquered. The origin of the fire is not clearly known, but the story is told by a boy, is that he went to bed and left a lamp burning which exploded.

The fire bell in the tower at Public building is of about as much use as a 1776 snow ball. It has been out of commission so long that firemen have almost forgotten that it ever was there.

Wil-on Maneval, who has been connected with the brick yard, as a locomotive engineer for more than twenty years, has resigned his position, the same taking effect on November 1st. Mr. Maneval has an enviable record in hauling his train over the mountain clay road. He has never had an accident nor had a man injured during his long period of service. He was an every day man and was on the job, snow, rain or shine. The men always trusted to his judgment in traversing the mountain side road leading from the hard clay mines to the plant and felt perfectly safe on the train when "Wils" was handling the engine's throttle.

A number of Republican voters, both male and female attended the big Republican party rally at Clearfield yesterday evening. The intention was to take one of the town's hands along, but arrangement was not made soon enough to get the bandmen together in time.

At a meeting of Joshua Earl Sines Post No. 565, American Legion held on Thursday evening the following resolution was unanimously passed: "Realizing the need of a new High School building and in keeping with the principles of the American Legion, and its educational program, we hereby resolve to give our unqualified support to the bond issue and to the school board and to the citizens of Curwensville in their efforts to erect a new High School building in Curwensville commensurate with our urgent needs and modern ideals, and furthermore to help augment the bond issue of $24,000 to a sum that will provide adequate educational facilities for the rising generation in Curwensville and vicinity."

It is notified that for the November-December term of County Court, five Curwensville people will be summoned to appear for jury duty, viz: H. S. Shearer, John Myrsky, Mrs. Rose Strickland, Roy Strickland and Mrs. Mary Hile.

Chief Clark has been sent off under the weather for several days past, fighting off an attack of indigestion and severe cramps.

William Woodside went to Pittsburgh early this week, and drove home in a new Chevrolet car for Agent Bonnell. It has all the late and modern improvements attached and the body is something to look twice at.

Chicken pox has become quite prevalent among the children in several sections of the town and Health Officer Weaver is wearing out considerable shoe leather posting up notices.

A very commendable resolution and shows the right spirit of patriotism and citizenship, whether the bond issue is granted or not. The writer is informed that several other town organizations have passed favorable resolutions relative to vote on the question.

MASQUERADE PARTY

A delightful Hallowe'en party was held at the home of R. B. Harrier of Woodland, Tuesday evening, Oct. 31. The house was beautifully decorated with yellow and black, with cats and witches spying on you from every corner and bats ready to swoop down upon one at any time.

A little after dark there arrived about fifty guests, some of whom were all sorts of costumes, some being especially good. Among them were Grandfather and Grandmother, a large ghost and one little girl who needed his teeth pulled very badly.

During the first part of the evening ghost stories were told. These were followed by games. When games were tired of, refreshments were served and everybody went to their homes wishing Hallowe'en came oftener.

VOTE FOR PINCHOT

Omar Khayyam.

Omar Khayyam was a Persian poet, astronomer and mathematician, born at Nishapur, in Khurasan. His scientific works, which were of high value in their day, have been eclipsed by his "Rubaiyat," a collection of about 500 epigrams in praise of wine, love and pleasure, and at the same time deprecatingly pessimistic. He died in Nishapur in 1123.

Drilling and Boring.

In machine shop parlance, drilling is making a round hole through metal or the like with a rotating pointed tool that forces its way through by pressure and rotation, while boring is enlarging a hole that already exists. Cutting a circular hole in wood with a brace and bit, as done by carpenters, is boring, but a similar operation in metal is drilling.

RED PEPPER FOR COLDS IN CHEST

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once. The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are coming from a cold, a malaise, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache often means you have been eating too much meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. An excess of meat may form uric acid, which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and slow you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore, water acids and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink. Drink lots of soft water.
